Dear Mr. Joby Jacob,

Subject: Acceptance of Proposal for "Torezzi(A Digital Currency)" Research Project

We are pleased to inform you that your proposal for the research project titled "Torezzi(A Digital Currency)" has been thoroughly reviewed and accepted by our committee. Your innovative approach to exploring and developing a new cryptocurrency, along with the detailed methodology and work plan you have outlined, aligns well with our goals and interests in advancing digital currency technologies.

The objectives of your project, focusing on the creation of a cryptocurrency that can revolutionize transactions within the university for services such as turf, gym, canteen, fines, and library, demonstrate a keen understanding of the current and future needs of digital transactions. The stepwise activities, including the choice of a consensus mechanism, selection of a blockchain platform, and design of the system's architecture, reflect a well-thought-out approach to tackling the challenges of digital currency development.

We are particularly impressed with your budgeting details, including the allocations for cloud platform development, chain network development, distributed ledger technology, Android app development, and other critical areas. Your attention to the financial aspects of the project ensures that the necessary resources are identified and appropriately budgeted for the successful completion of the project.

As part of our acceptance, we are committed to providing you with the necessary support and resources as outlined in your budget proposal. This includes funding totaling Rs. 100,000/- to cover consumables, travel, equipment, and other expenses over the project duration. We believe that your project has the potential to contribute significantly to the field of computer science and digital currency, and we look forward to the impactful outcomes of your research.

Please feel free to contact us for any further information or assistance you may require as you commence with the project implementation. We would also appreciate regular updates on the progress of your project, as per the timeline provided in your proposal.
