1. Workshop on Enhancing Industry Relations through Soft Skills

Programme	Workshop on Enhancing Industry Relations Through Soft Skills
Date	06 and 07 June 2023
No. of Participants	63 Students
Resource Person	Ms. Shakeeba Faheem, Customer Relationship Officer, Babbette System Technologies Private Limited & Noopa Anna Justus, HR Executive Carnival Info Park Phase IV, Kakkanad, Kerala
Outcome	The primary outcome of the workshop was the significant improvement in students' soft skills, particularly in communication, teamwork, and problem-solving. Another key outcome was the strengthened relationship between the academic institution and industry professionals.
Organized by	Department of Management, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39
Faculty in charge	Ms. Anila Varghese, Assistant Professor, Department of Management, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39
Student in charge	Ms. Malaika Elizabeth Titus, BBA Semester 5, Department of Management

On the 6th and 7th of June 2023, the Department of Management conducted a highly successful workshop aimed at enhancing industry relations through the development of soft skills. The event, held for the students of the Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) department, saw enthusiastic participation from 63 students, eager to hone their interpersonal and professional skills.

The workshop featured two distinguished resource persons: Ms. Shakeeba Faheem, a seasoned expert in customer relations from Babbette System Technologies Pvt. Ltd., and

Ms. Noopa Anna Justus, an experienced HR executive from Carnival Info park. Both speakers brought a wealth of knowledge and practical insights to the sessions, enriching the learning experience for all attendees.

The first day of the workshop was led by Ms. Shakeeba Faheem. Her sessions focused on the critical role of communication skills in building and maintaining strong customer relationships. She highlighted various techniques for effective communication, including active listening, empathy, and clarity in conveying messages. The resource person shared numerous real-world examples from her extensive experience at Babette System Technologies, illustrating how soft skills can significantly impact customer satisfaction and loyalty. The interactive nature of her sessions allowed students to practice these techniques through role-playing and group activities, fostering a hands-on learning environment.

The second day was spearheaded by Ms. Noopa Anna Justus, who turned the spotlight on the importance of soft skills in human resources and professional development. Ms. Justus elaborated on the key soft skills sought by employers, such as teamwork, adaptability, problem-solving, and emotional intelligence. Her session included practical advice on how to develop these skills and effectively demonstrate them in a professional setting.

Participants praised the workshop for its comprehensive coverage and practical approach. Many students expressed that the insights gained from resource persons were invaluable for their personal and professional growth. The interactive format of the sessions, combined with the expertise of the resource persons, ensured that the students were actively engaged and could immediately apply what they learned.

The two-day workshop on enhancing industry relations through soft skills was a resounding success, thanks to the Department of Management's initiative and the expertise of Ms. Shakeeba Faheem and Ms. Noopa Anna Justus. By equipping students with essential soft skills, the department has taken a significant step towards preparing them for successful careers in the competitive business world. The positive feedback

Dear Sir/Madam,

Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad, Kerala, established in 2005, is under the guidance of the CMI Fathers, a religious congregation founded by St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara. Belonging to the Sacred Heart Province of the CMI, the college is driven by the motto "Learn, Serve, Excel" and aims to enhance the moral, social, and rational foundation of its students.

With a focused vision of imparting solid foundation in Management principles, theories and practices and to equip students for challenging Entrepreneurial and Managerial positions, the Department of Management was established in July 2005.

Since its inception, holistic empowerment of the student community is given utmost importance. Various Curricular and Co Curricular programs are designed and implemented in the department to enhance the knowledge, skills and attitudes of the students and to prepare them for Higher Studies as well as the Corporate World.

Objective

The primary objective of the workshop is to significantly improve in students' soft skills, particularly in communication, teamwork, and problem-solving. Another key objective is to strengthen relationship between the academic institution and industry professionals. Aims at providing students with practical experiences and insights that align with current industry standards and expectations, enhancing their readiness for future career opportunities.

An enlightening and interactive two day seminar with our esteemed alumnus currently employed at Reuters. Gain valuable insights into their professional journey and industry expertise.

📅 07 & 08 December 2023 | Conference Hall, RCMAS

Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad, Kerala, established in 2005, is under the guidance of the CMI Fathers, a religious congregation founded by St. Kunikose Elias Chavara. Belonging to the Sacred Heart Province of the CMI, the college is driven by the motto "Learn, Serve, Excel" and aims to enhance the moral, social, and rational foundation of its students.

The Department of English, institutionalized in 2015, focuses on equipping students with essential skills in Language, Communication, and Journalism. It is our pride to announce that we will be hosting a Seminar on Developing Entrepreneurial Skills in collaboration with Reuters, featuring our distinguished alumni who is currently a News Associate at Reuters. The event will take place on the 7th and 8th of December, 2023.

Objective:

The two day seminar offers students a comprehensive foundation in entrepreneurial skills, with a focus on media management, journalism, and technology. Participants will gain insights from industry leaders like Reuters, equipping them with the knowledge and tools to excel in today's dynamic media landscape. Being a part of this, students will surely be well-prepared to succeed and make a significant impact in their chosen field.

Day 1 (11:00 AM - 12:30 PM)

How to Develop Good Entrepreneurial Skills

Focuses on key entrepreneurial skills such as creativity, problem-solving, and effective communication through interactive sessions and workshops.

Day 2 (10:00 AM - 01:00 PM)

Introduction to Reuters

An in-depth introduction to Reuters, covering news gathering, reporting, and the role of media in business and society. Participants will also learn to use media tools and technologies for their ventures.

Faculty in charge	Ms. Raji T, Assistant Professor, Department of Management, , Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39
Student in charge	Ms. Navya Madhu, BBA Semester 3, Department of Management

The seminar commenced with an inaugural session on 18th August 2022, featuring an address by Ms. Raji T, who highlighted the importance of soft skills in today's competitive environment. This was followed by a detailed session by Dr. Lakshmy Nair, who focused on the significance of communication and leadership skills, drawing from her diverse experiences in the legal and Culinary fields.

The second day, 19th August 2022, saw Ms. Kavitha Krishnadas engaging students with interactive activities designed to enhance teamwork, problem-solving, and adaptability. Her session emphasized the practical application of soft skills in managing real-world challenges.

Throughout the seminar, students participated in various activities and discussions, providing them with hands-on experience in using soft skills. Feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive, with many expressing their appreciation for the insights gained and the interactive nature of the sessions.

The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms. Navya Madhu, acknowledging the contributions of the resource persons, organizers, and participants. The event was a resounding success, meeting its objectives and leaving a lasting impact on all attendees.

Join us for an insightful seminar on how soft skills like communication, adaptability, and cultural sensitivity are crucial to stay ahead of time

18 and 19 August 2022 | Auditorium, RCMAS

Dear Sir/Madam,

Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad, Kerala, established in 2005, is under the guidance of the CMI Fathers, a religious congregation founded by St. Kutukose Elias Chavara, Belonging to the Sacred Heart Province of the CMI, the college is driven by the motto "Learn, Serve, Excel" and aims to enhance the moral, social, and rational foundation of its students.

With a focused vision of imparting solid foundation in Management principles, theories and practices and to equip students for challenging Entrepreneurial and Managerial positions, the Department of Management was established in July 2005.

Since its inception, holistic empowerment of the student community is given utmost importance. Various Co-curricular programs are designed and implemented in the department to enhance the knowledge, skills and attitudes of the students and to prepare them for Higher Studies as well as the Corporate World.

Objective

The objective of the seminar "Role of Soft Skills in Travelling Ahead of Time" is to explore how essential soft skills such as communication, adaptability, and cultural sensitivity contribute to personal and professional success in a rapidly evolving global landscape. Through interactive sessions and real-world examples, participants will gain insights into leveraging soft skills to navigate challenges, foster meaningful relationships, and seize opportunities in diverse cultural and professional settings.

The Department of Commerce at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences organized a two-day Seminar on Soft Skills for Financial Literacy: "Empowering Your Financial Journey" on the 3rd and 4th February of 2022 at the College Auditorium.

The two-day seminar focused on equipping participants with essential soft skills necessary for managing personal finances effectively and navigating the financial landscape with confidence. Participants gained practical skills and insights into applying soft skills to enhance their financial literacy and decision-making capabilities. The seminar fostered a proactive approach towards financial empowerment and responsibility among attendees.

The two-day seminar on soft skills for financial literacy was instrumental in bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application in personal finance. It emphasized the transformative impact of soft skills in empowering individuals to manage their finances effectively.

Organizers plan to provide participants with post-seminar resources and support, including access to online tools and additional workshops on specific financial topics. They aim to collaborate with educational institutions and community organizations to expand outreach and promote ongoing financial education initiatives.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, kakkanad, Kerala, established in 2005, is under the guidance of the CMI Fathers, a religious congregation founded by St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara. Belonging to the Sacred Heart Province of the CMI, the college is driven by the motto "Learn, Serve, Excel" and aims to enhance the moral, social, and rational foundation of its students.

The Department of Commerce, established in 2005, has rapidly expanded to become a hub of academic excellence and professional training. Initially focused on undergraduate education, offering six UG courses and one PG course. With a robust faculty team of 31 members The Department of Commerce aims to enhance research capabilities, innovate its curriculum, and promote holistic development through various co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

Objective:

Overall, the seminar is expected to successfully enhance participants' knowledge of GST while highlighting the role of soft skills in mastering technical subjects. Attendees will likely appreciate the insightful content and practical approach.

Day 1 : 11am to 1.30 pm

Day 1 will run from 11:00 AM to 1:30 PM, with Mr. Clinton Pinhero, a Tax Practitioner at TaxInfo, providing a detailed introduction to GST (Goods and Services Tax) and its implications. The session will cover foundational concepts and practical applications, emphasizing the importance of soft skills in understanding complex tax regulations.

Day 2: 10 am to 12.00pm

Day 2, from 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM, will delve deeper into advanced GST topics, including compliance and recent updates. Mr. Pinhero's engaging presentation style and real-world examples will help participants grasp the nuances of GST effectively.

11. Report on Seminar on Soft Skills Enhancement through Neuro-Linguistics Program

Programme	Seminar on Soft Skills Enhancement through Neuro-Linguistics Programme
Date	20 and 21 June 2019
No. of Participants	67 Students
Resource Person	Mr. Ranju Kuruvilla Kurien, NLP Practitioner
Outcome	Participants significantly enhanced their soft skills through effective neuro-linguistics techniques, improving communication, interpersonal relations, and overall professional effectiveness.
Organized by	Department of Management, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39
Faculty in charge	Ms. Megha Mohan, Assistant Professor, Department of Management Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39,
Student in charge	Ms. Simran Lee Freddy, BBA Semester 5, Department of Management

The Department of Management at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences hosted an enlightening seminar titled "Soft Skills Enhancement Through Neuro-Linguistics Programme" on 20th and 21st June 2019. This seminar aimed to equip students with advanced techniques from neuro-linguistic programming (NLP) to enhance their soft skills essential for professional success.

The seminar featured distinguished resource persons, Mr. Ranju Kuruvilla Kurien and Mr. Mathew Jacob, both NLP Practitioners. Their combined expertise in NLP and training methodologies provided 67 participating students with comprehensive insights and practical strategies to improve communication, interpersonal relations, and overall professional effectiveness.

A notable outcome of the seminar was the significant enhancement observed in participants' soft skills. Through interactive sessions and hands-on exercises, students learned how to leverage NLP techniques to enhance their communication skills, including effective verbal and non-verbal communication. They also gained insights into understanding and influencing others, improving interpersonal relations crucial for teamwork and leadership roles.

Moreover, the seminar empowered students to develop a growth mindset and overcome limiting beliefs that hinder personal and professional growth. Participants learned to apply NLP principles to manage stress, build confidence, and enhance their emotional intelligence, essential for navigating challenges in the workplace and beyond.

The Department of Management, under the leadership of Ms. Megha Mohan, ensured the seminar's successful organization and smooth execution. Simran Lee Jacob, a final year student from BBA, played a pivotal role as the student in charge, facilitating logistical arrangements and ensuring active participation from her peers.

In conclusion, the seminar on "Soft Skills Enhancement Through Neuro-Linguistics Programme" at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences was instrumental in equipping students with practical skills and techniques from NLP. It not only enhanced their soft skills but also prepared them to excel in their future careers by fostering effective communication, interpersonal effectiveness, and overall professional competence.

Dear Sir/Madam,

Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad, Kerala, established in 2005, is under the guidance of the GM Fathers, a religious congregation founded by St. Kuriakose Elia Chavara, belonging to the Sacred Heart Province of the GM, the college is driven by the motto "Learn, Serve, Excel" and aims to enhance the moral, social, and rational foundations of its students.

With a focused vision of imparting solid foundation in Management principles, theories and practices and to equip students for challenging Entrepreneurial and Management positions, the Department of Management was established in July 2005.

Since its inception, holistic empowerment of the student community is given utmost importance. Various Co-curricular and Ex-Curricular programs are designed and implemented in the department to enhance the knowledge, skills and attitudes of the students and to prepare them for Higher Studies as well as the Corporate World.

Objective

Participants significantly enhance their soft skills through effective neuro-linguistics techniques, improving communication, interpersonal relations, and overall professional effectiveness. They learn to apply these techniques in real-world scenarios, gaining practical experience that enhances their confidence and adaptability in various professional settings. Additionally, participants develop a deeper understanding of how neuro-linguistics can positively impact personal growth and career advancement.

Day 1 (9 : 30 AM - 1:00 PM)

Soft Skills Enhancement Through Neuro-Linguistics Programme

First day of our seminar focuses on Soft Skills Enhancement through Neuro-Linguistics Programme. Explore effective communication strategies and master storytelling techniques. Learn to captivate your audience through impactful messaging and refine your presentation skills.

Day 2 (10 : 00 AM - 12:30 PM)

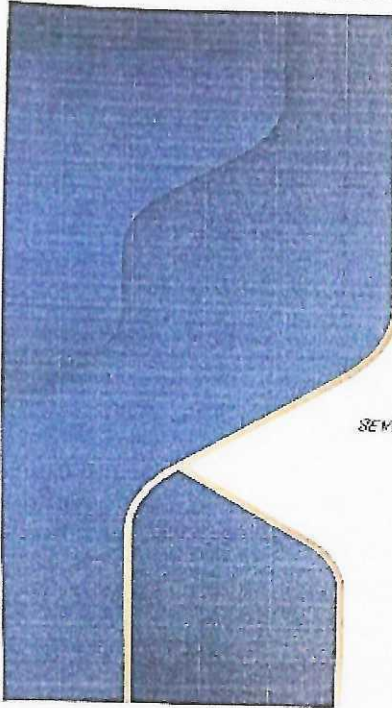

Harnessing Non-Verbal Communication and Emotional Intelligence

On Day 2, delve deeper into the power of non-verbal communication and emotional intelligence. Discover how to build rapport and influence others positively using neuro-linguistic programming principles. Gain practical insights and tools to enhance your professional interactions and leadership capabilities.

Mr. Naveen Kumar, an esteemed HRD Trainer from the Trainers Training Academy in Kochi, served as the resource person for the seminar. With his extensive experience in training and development, Mr. Kumar brought valuable insights and practical knowledge to the session.

The seminar was meticulously organized by the Department of Management, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences. Under the guidance of Ms. Anila Varghese, a faculty member from the Department of Management, the event was structured to maximize learning and engagement.

The primary objective of the seminar was to impart skills such as effective communication, conflict resolution, decision-making, and team collaboration. These skills are essential for aspiring leaders and managers in today's competitive and dynamic work environment.

Mr. Naveen Kumar conducted engaging sessions that included role-playing exercises, group discussions, and case studies. These activities allowed participants to apply theoretical concepts to real-life scenarios. Participants benefited from workshops focused on enhancing specific soft skills, such as negotiation techniques, emotional intelligence, and adaptive leadership. A panel of industry experts shared their insights on the importance of soft skills in career progression. The discussion provided a practical perspective on how these skills contribute to organizational success.: The seminar provided a platform for students to network with peers and industry professionals, fostering meaningful connections and collaborations.

The seminar on 'Nurturing Soft Skills for Effective Leadership and Team Building' was a resounding success, thanks to the proactive involvement of students and the expertise of Mr. Naveen Kumar. The event not only equipped participants with essential soft skills but also inspired them to strive for excellence in their personal and professional endeavours.
