1. Two-Day Workshop on Effective Interpersonal Skills

Programme	Two-Day Workshop on Effective Interpersonal Skills
Date	15 and 16 June 2023
No. of Participants	61 Students
Resource Person	Mr. Jayadev Menon, CEO, Aksh People Transformation
Outcome	Participants in a Two-Day Workshop on Effective Interpersonal Skills typically experience improved communication, enhanced conflict resolution abilities, strengthened teamwork, increased self-awareness, boosted confidence, and practical strategies for networking and cultural sensitivity.
Organized by	Department of Management, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39
Faculty in charge	Ms. Raji T, Assistant Professor, Department of Management,
Student in charge	Ms. Safa P S, BBA Semester 5, Department of Management

The Department of Management at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences organized a comprehensive Two-Day Workshop on Effective Interpersonal Skills on 15th and 16th June 2023. The workshop aimed to equip participants with essential communication and collaboration skills crucial for personal and professional growth. Facilitated by Mr. Jayadev Menon, CEO of Aksh People Transformation, the workshop drew participation from 61 enthusiastic students eager to enhance their interpersonal capabilities.

Throughout the workshop, participants engaged in various interactive sessions designed to improve their communication proficiency. They learned to articulate ideas clearly, listen actively, and adapt their communication style to different contexts. Practical exercises and role-playing scenarios facilitated by Mr. Jayadev Menon encouraged students to apply these skills in simulated real-life situations, thereby boosting their confidence in interpersonal interactions.

An integral component of the workshop focused on enhancing conflict resolution abilities. Students gained insights into identifying sources of conflict, understanding different conflict resolution strategies, and practicing constructive dialogue to resolve disagreements effectively. This segment of the workshop was particularly beneficial as it equipped participants with practical tools to manage conflicts both in academic settings and future workplaces.

Furthermore, the workshop emphasized the importance of teamwork and collaboration. Through group activities and team-building exercises, students learned the dynamics of effective teamwork, including trust-building, task allocation, and collective problem-solving. These activities not only fostered a spirit of cooperation but also instilled in participants a deeper understanding of their role within a team environment.

Participants also explored the concept of self-awareness during the workshop. They engaged in self-assessment activities aimed at recognizing their strengths, weaknesses, and communication preferences. This self-awareness journey empowered students to leverage their strengths while actively working on areas needing improvement, thereby enhancing their overall interpersonal effectiveness.

The workshop also addressed the significance of cultural sensitivity and networking strategies in today's globalized world. Students gained valuable insights into respecting cultural diversity, adapting communication styles across cultures, and building professional networks. These skills are crucial for fostering inclusive environments and establishing meaningful connections in their future careers.

The event was organized under the guidance of Ms. Raji T, Assistant Professor from the Department of Management, with Ms. Safa P S, a final year student from BBA, serving as the student coordinator. Their diligent efforts ensured the smooth execution of the workshop, providing participants with a rich learning experience that promises to have a lasting impact on their personal and professional lives.

15 and 16 June 2023 | Auditorium , RCMAS

Dear Sir/Madam,

Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad, Kerala established in 2005, is under the guidance of the CMI Fathers, a religious congregation founded by St. Kurukose Elias Chavara. Belonging to the Sacred Heart Province of the CMI, the college is driven by the motto "Learn, Serve, Excel" and aims to enhance the moral, social, and rational foundation of its students.

With a focused vision of imparting solid foundation in Management principles, theories and practices and to equip students for challenging Entrepreneurial and Managerial positions, the Department of Management was established in July 2005.

Since its inception, holistic empowerment of the student community is given utmost importance. Various Curricular and Co Curricular programs are designed and implemented in the department to enhance the knowledge, skills and attitudes of the students and to prepare them for Higher Studies as well as the Corporate World.

Objective

The objective of the Two Day Workshop on Effective Interpersonal Skills is to equip participants with enhanced communication and conflict resolution abilities, thereby strengthening teamwork dynamics. Through practical sessions, participants will also develop increased self-awareness, confidence, and strategies for effective networking and cultural sensitivity.

Day 1 (10 : 00 AM – 1 PM)

Foundational Skills for Effective Interpersonal Communication

Focuses on foundational skills crucial for effective interpersonal communication. Participants will delve into active listening techniques, understanding non-verbal cues, and mastering the art of empathy. Through interactive exercises and role-playing scenarios, attendees will gain practical insights into creating meaningful connections and fostering collaborative relationships.

Day 2 (11 : 30 AM – 12 : 30 PM)

Advancing Interpersonal Skills: Conflict Management and Assertiveness

Advances participants' skills with a focus on managing conflicts constructively, delivering impactful feedback, and enhancing assertiveness. Workshops will explore techniques for handling difficult conversations with confidence and sensitivity. Through case studies and real-world simulations, participants will refine their communication styles to inspire trust, resolve conflicts, and lead with authenticity.

Student in charge	Ms. Tessa Tomy and Mr. Alby Sebastian, Department of Commerce

The workshop titled "Refining Language and Communication Skills: Forum Ronde" was held on September 25-26, 2023, at the College Auditorium, organized by Ms. Vineetha Varghese, Ms. Tessy Biju, and Ms. Maria Paul, Assistant Professors at RCMAS. The workshop aimed to enhance participants' proficiency in language and communication, crucial for professional success and effective interpersonal interactions. Mr. Anish P Joseph, Regional Business Manager at Nokia, served as the resource person, bringing industry expertise to enrich the learning experience.

With 30 participants in attendance, the workshop featured comprehensive sessions from 9:30 AM to 4:00 PM each day. Topics covered included effective verbal and non-verbal communication, presentation skills, and strategies for overcoming communication barriers. Mr. Joseph's practical insights and real-world examples from Nokia's corporate environment provided valuable perspectives on applying communication skills in business settings.

Participants actively engaged in interactive activities, role-playing exercises, and group discussions designed to practice and refine their language and communication abilities. The workshop fostered a collaborative learning environment where attendees received personalized feedback and guidance from both the faculty coordinators and the resource person. By the conclusion of the workshop, participants expressed enhanced confidence and proficiency in communicating effectively, poised to apply their refined skills in their academic and professional endeavours.

Overall, the "Forum Ronde" workshop proved to be a significant opportunity for participants to hone their language and communication skills under the guidance of experienced facilitators and industry professionals. The collaborative efforts of the organizers, coordinators, and the resource person contributed to making the workshop a success in equipping participants with essential competencies for career advancement and personal growth.

3. Workshop on Exploring Visual Communication with Calligraphy

Programme	Workshop on Exploring Visual Communication with Calligraphy
Date	04 and 05 October 2023
No. of Participants	15 Students
Outcome	The workshop on calligraphy significantly enhanced students' technical skills with various tools and techniques, while also fostering cultural awareness and inspiring creative integration into modern graphic design practices.
Organized by	Department Of Animation and Graphic Design, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences
Resource person	Mr. Renju A C, Assistant Professor of Department of Animation & Graphic Design
Faculty in charge	Mr. Jotty Jacob, Assistant Professor of Department of Animation & Graphic Design
Student in charge	Mr. Abhishak K M, Ma Graphic Design Batch 2023-25 & Mr. Athul K M BA Animation and Graphic Design Batch 2021-24

The "Workshop on Exploring Visual Communication with Calligraphy," held from October 4-5, 2023, at the Department of Animation & Graphic Design, was a comprehensive and enriching experience for the 15 participating students. Under the expert guidance of Mr. Renju A C, Assistant Professor, the workshop began with an engaging session on the history and evolution of calligraphy, emphasizing its significance in visual communication. Students were introduced to various calligraphy tools, including nibs, brushes, and pens, and engaged in hands-on practice of fundamental strokes and patterns. The second day delved into more advanced techniques, with Mr. Renju A C teaching students to create intricate calligraphic designs and integrate calligraphy into modern graphic design projects. This session was particularly enlightening, featuring case studies and practical examples. A highlight of the workshop was the group project, where students collaborated to create visual communication pieces incorporating calligraphic elements. Coordinated by Mr. Jotty

Jacob, along with student coordinators Abhishak K M and Athul K M, the workshop concluded with presentations and feedback sessions. Students demonstrated their projects, received constructive critiques, and reflected on their learning experiences.

In conclusion, the "Workshop on Exploring Visual Communication with Calligraphy" was a resounding success. It provided participants with a deep understanding of calligraphy and its applications, enhanced their technical skills, and fostered creativity and collaboration. The positive feedback from both students and the resource person underscores the workshop's impact and effectiveness. This event not only enriched the students' academic experience but also inspired them to explore innovative ways to integrate traditional art forms into contemporary design practices, highlighting the enduring relevance of calligraphy in visual communication.

The Department of English at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences organized a Workshop on Epeolatry: Worship of Words - Cultivating Communication Brilliance from the 27th to 30th June 2022. The workshop included several LSRW skills development programme series to provide comprehensive training that enhances participants' listening, speaking, reading, and writing abilities, thereby improving their overall communication skills. This programme is designed to address the critical need for effective communication in personal, academic, and professional settings. A total of 28 students participated in the workshop. The programme benefited from the expertise of Ms. Sai Parvathy I.R & Ms. Amala Manavalan, Assistant Professors, RCMAS.

The workshop included a series of enriching sessions, with participants showing notable improvements in their communication abilities. Listening skills were enhanced, leading to better comprehension and information retention. Speaking skills saw increased confidence and clarity, making verbal interactions more effective. Reading skills improved in terms of comprehension and analytical capacity, while writing skills were strengthened, resulting in clearer and more impactful written communication. Overall, the programme significantly elevated the participants' proficiency in the use of language, fostering a culture of effective communication.

The organizing committee extends sincere appreciation to Ms. Amala and Ms. Sai Parvathy for their invaluable contributions. Special thanks to faculty coordinator Ms. Kavitha Krishnadas, and the student coordinator, Ms. Nahan K Sali, for their dedicated efforts in ensuring the success of the seminar.

The programme series successfully met its aim of enhancing participants' communication skills across listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The structured approach, practical activities, and continuous assessments proved effective in achieving significant skill improvements. The positive feedback from participants underscores the programme's success and provides valuable insights for future iterations, ensuring continued enhancement and effectiveness in developing essential communication skills.

The Department of Management at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences organized a thought-provoking workshop titled "Workshop on Unravelling Chernobyl: Communication Skills Training" on 21st and 22nd November 2022. The seminar aimed to enhance participants' communication skills while deepening their understanding of the Chernobyl disaster, a pivotal event in history.

Dr. Chithra V Menon, Assistant Professor at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, served as the esteemed resource person for the workshop. With her expertise in communication and historical knowledge of Chernobyl, Dr. Menon guided 62 enthusiastic students through engaging sessions and activities designed to improve their communication proficiency.

Legal

The workshop yielded significant outcomes for participants. Firstly, attendees enhanced their communication skills by learning to articulate complex information clearly and effectively. Through interactive discussions, role-playing exercises, and presentations, students honed their ability to convey ideas concisely and engage audiences with confidence.

Secondly, participants gained a deeper understanding of the Chernobyl disaster and its far-reaching consequences. Dr. Menon provided comprehensive insights into the events leading to the disaster, its aftermath, and the socio-economic impacts, fostering a nuanced understanding among students.

Moreover, the workshop empowered students to discuss sensitive and complex topics with poise and clarity. By delving into the details of Chernobyl, participants developed critical thinking skills and learned to approach historical narratives and contemporary issues with empathy and factual accuracy.

The Department of Management, under the leadership of Ms. Sunitha Varghese, ensured the seamless organization and execution of the workshop. Ms. Noopa Anna Justus, a final year student of BBA, played a pivotal role as the student in charge, facilitating logistics and ensuring the workshop's success.

"Unravelling Chernobyl: Communication Skills Workshop" at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences was a resounding success. It not only enhanced participants' communication abilities but also deepened their understanding of a significant historical event.

A workshop where you will master communication skills through an exploration of the Chernobyl disaster, emphasizing effective storytelling and impactful messaging.

21 and 22 November 2022 | Conference Hall, RCMAS

Dear Sir/Madam,

Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad, Kerala, established in 2005, is under the guidance of the CMI Fathers, a religious congregation founded by St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara. Belonging to the Sacred Heart Province of the CMI, the college is driven by the motto "Learn, Serve, Excel" and aims to enhance the moral, social, and rational foundation of its students.

With a focused vision of imparting solid foundation in Management principles, theories and practices and to equip students for challenging Entrepreneurial and Managerial positions, the Department of Management was established in July 2005.

Since its inception, holistic empowerment of the student community is given utmost importance. Various Curricular and Co-Curricular programs are designed and implemented in the department to enhance the knowledge, skills and attitudes of the students and to prepare them for Higher Studies as well as the Corporate World.

Objective

The workshop aims to enhance participants' communication skills, deepen their understanding of the Chernobyl disaster, and improve their ability to discuss complex topics effectively. Additionally, it seeks to foster a heightened awareness of environmental issues and their global impact. Participants will also learn strategies for engaging in constructive dialogue on these critical subjects.

Day 1 (9 : 30 AM - 11 AM)

Foundations of Communication and Chernobyl Context

Communication Skills Training begins with an overview and historical context of the Chernobyl disaster. Participants shall learn effective communication basics and storytelling techniques, concluding with a group activity to create and present Chernobyl-related narratives.

Day 2 (11 : 30 AM - 12 : 30 PM)

Advanced Communication Skills and Long-Term Impacts

Participants shall examine Chernobyl's long-term impacts and advanced their communication skills with sessions on persuasion, visual storytelling, and crisis communication. A simulation exercise allowed them to apply these skills, followed by a reflection session to recap and provide feedback.

A two day seminar on valuable insights into the benefits of linguistic diversity, encouraging participants to adopt inclusive practices in their personal and professional lives.

28 February & 1 March 2023 | Auditorium, RCMAS

Dear Sir/Madam,

Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkannad, Kerala, established in 2005, is under the guidance of the CMI Fathers, a religious congregation founded by St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara. Belonging to the Sacred Heart Province of the CMI, the college is driven by the motto "Learn, Serve, Excel" and aims to enhance the moral, social, and rational foundation of its students.

The Department of Commerce, established in 2005, has rapidly expanded to become a hub of academic excellence and professional training. Initially focused on undergraduate education, offering six UG courses and one PG course. With a robust faculty team of 31 members. The Department of Commerce aims to enhance research capabilities, innovate its curriculum, and promote holistic development through various co-curricular and extracurricular activities.

Objective:

The two-day seminar focuses on exploring the practical implications and strategies for embracing linguistic diversity in various professional settings. Through interactive sessions and workshops, participants will gain insights into how linguistic diversity fosters global understanding and cooperation.

Day 1 (11:00AM - 12:30PM)

Multilingualism in education and workplace

Focuses on key entrepreneurial skills such as creativity, problem-solving, and effective communication through interactive sessions and workshops.

Day 2 (10:00AM - 12:00PM)

Harnessing linguistic diversity for global collaboration

Includes understanding the benefits of multilingualism in the workplace, implementing inclusive communication practices, and promoting cultural sensitivity and appreciation

The Department of English at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences organized a National webinar on Nexus of Language in Text, Image and Gender on 7th and 8th January 2021. A total of 79 students participated in the webinar. The visit benefited from the expertise of Ms. Sohini Sen-Author, travel writer and photographer, Dr. Lalitha Sarma-Faculty of Humanities, Indian Naval Academy, Dr. Niladri Ranjan Chatterjee, HoD of English, University of Kalyani, West Bengal and Krishna Warriar, Communication Consultant and Faculty, IITB - Monash.

Legat

Throughout the webinar, several key objectives were addressed. Firstly, it aimed to examine the role of language in constructing and perpetuating gender stereotypes and norms within textual and visual contexts. Secondly, it aimed to foster discussions on the intersection of linguistic strategies, visual representations, and gender identities, exploring how these elements interact to reinforce or challenge existing gender narratives. Thirdly, the webinar aimed to showcase research findings and case studies that illustrate the impact of language and imagery on gender perceptions in media, literature, advertising, and digital platforms. Lastly, it aimed to inspire participants to explore innovative approaches and strategies for promoting gender equality and inclusivity through language and visual communication.

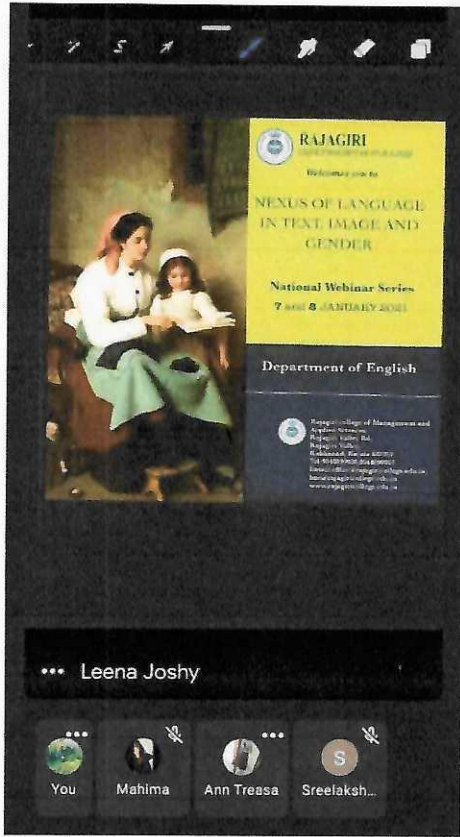

The organizing committee extends special thanks to Ms. Amala Manavalan and Ms. Sai Parvathi I.R., and the student coordinators, Smrithi and Sara for their dedicated efforts in ensuring the success of the seminar.

In conclusion, the national webinar fulfilled its objectives by providing a comprehensive platform for scholarly inquiry and dialogue on the complex interplay between language, visual representation, and gender dynamics. It contributed to advancing knowledge and understanding of how language choices in text and imagery can impact perceptions of gender identity and equality.

11. Workshop on Expressive Movement - The Language of Dance Drama

Programme	Workshop on Expressive Movement: The Language of Dance Drama
Date	26 August 2019 to 30 August 2019
No. of Participants	13 Students
Resource Person	Ms. Neha Ann Varughese, Assistant Professor, RCMAS
Outcome	Participants gained practical skills in choreography tailored to the narrative demands of Girish Karnad's "Nagamandala," developing a nuanced understanding of how movement can convey complex human emotions and relationships.
Organized by	Department of English, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin - 39, Kerala
Faculty in charge	Ms. Amala Manavalan, Department of English
Student in charge	Ms. Jyothis Josekutty, BAE, VI Semester, Department of English

The Department of English at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences organized a Workshop on Expressive Movement: The Language of Dance Drama from 26th to 30th August 2019. The workshop aimed to explore the intricate relationship between dance and drama, with a specific focus on how movement can effectively communicate emotions, narratives, and themes in performances, inspired by Girish Karnad's "Nagamandala". A total of 13 students participated in the seminar. The workshop benefited from the expertise of Ms. Neha Ann Varughese, Assistant Professor, RCMAS.

Participants engaged in practical sessions with a special emphasis on the narrative richness of "Nagamandala." Techniques in choreography were taught to enhance storytelling, utilizing spatial arrangements, gestures, and synchronization to convey the nuances of the play's themes. The workshop encouraged participants to collaboratively create and interpret scenes from "Nagamandala," fostering creativity and a deeper understanding of the cultural and emotional layers embedded in Karnad's work.

The organizing committee extends sincere appreciation to Ms. Neha for her invaluable contributions. Special thanks to faculty coordinator Ms. Amala Manavalan, and the student coordinator Jyothis Josekutty, for their dedicated efforts in ensuring the success of the seminar.

The workshop successfully achieved its objectives by providing participants with a transformative experience rooted in the adaptation of Girish Karnad's "Nagamandala" into dance drama. Through practical exploration and creative collaboration, participants not only honed their artistic skills but also gained a profound understanding of the expressive potential of movement in storytelling.

Unleash the power of movement as a storytelling tool! This course will equip you with the foundational skills to express yourself through movement and create impactful performances. This workshop encourages exploration and celebrates the joy of movement as a language.

Auditorium, BOMAS
26 - 30 August 2019
10:00 AM

Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkannad, Kerala, established in 2005, is under the guidance of the CMI Fathers, a religious congregation founded by St. Kuriakose Elias Chavara. Belonging to the Sacred Heart Province of the CMI, the college is driven by the motto "Learn, Serve, Excel" and aims to enhance its students' moral, social, and rational foundation.

The Department of English, institutionalised in 2015, focuses on equipping students with essential skills in Language, Communication, and Journalism. It is our pride to announce that we will be hosting a Workshop on Expressive Movement: The Language of Dance Drama. It will take place from 26 August to 28 August 2019.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Demonstrate a foundational understanding of how movement translates emotions, ideas, and narratives.
- Apply improvisation techniques to explore and create spontaneous movement sequences confidently.
- Develop the ability to embody a character and tell their story through expressive movement.
- Analyze the role of movement with other theatrical elements like music and lighting.
- Collaborate effectively with others to create a basic theatrical presentation using expressive movement.

DAY 1

Begins with meticulous practice of dance drama. This involves rigorous rehearsals, where actors and dancers collaborate to refine movement, character portrayal, and overall theatrical presentation.

DAY 2

The second day focuses on the emphasizing of historical context. The practice of dance drama has a rich history, with traditions evolving through centuries of practice and cultural exchange.

DAY 3

The third day focuses on the different aspects. The practice of dance drama encompasses a variety of disciplines, including movement training, vocal exercises, character development, and theatrical staging techniques.

DAY 4

The fourth day focuses on adding a cultural lens. The practice of dance drama varies greatly across cultures, with each region developing unique styles, costumes, and narratives that reflect their specific cultural heritage.

DAY 5

The fifth day focuses on the enactment of dance drama. The enactment of dance drama brings a story to life through a captivating performance, where dancers and actors interact with the audience to create a shared emotional experience.
