1. Session on Mock Aptitude Test

Programme	Session on Mock Aptitude Test
Date	31 July 2020
No. of Participants	82 Students
Resource Person	Mr. Jomon Joseph, Corporate Trainer, Ambition Lear.
Outcome	The session provided participants with realistic practice and preparation for the actual assessment. It included familiarizing them with the test format, refining their problem-solving skills, identifying areas needing improvement, learning effective test-taking strategies, boosting confidence, and learning from mistakes to enhance overall performance on the aptitude test.
Organized by	Department of Management, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39, Kerala
Faculty in charge	Ms. Anila Varghese, Assistant Professor, Department of Management
Student in charge	Mr. Roshan Sunny, BBA Semester 3, Department of Management

On 31 July 2020, the Department of Management at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences organized a session on Mock Aptitude Tests. The event witnessed the participation of 82 students who engaged in this crucial preparatory activity aimed at enhancing their readiness for actual aptitude assessments.

The session was conducted by Mr. Joseph Joemon, a resource person specializing in Microsoft Excel, who brought a wealth of experience and expertise to the table. His involvement added significant value to the program, offering students practical insights and advanced techniques relevant to their test preparation.

The primary objective of this session was to provide participants with realistic practice and preparation for aptitude tests. By simulating the conditions and structure of actual tests, students were able to familiarize themselves with the test format, an essential step in reducing anxiety and improving performance. The mock tests were designed to refine their problem-solving skills, allowing them to identify areas needing improvement.

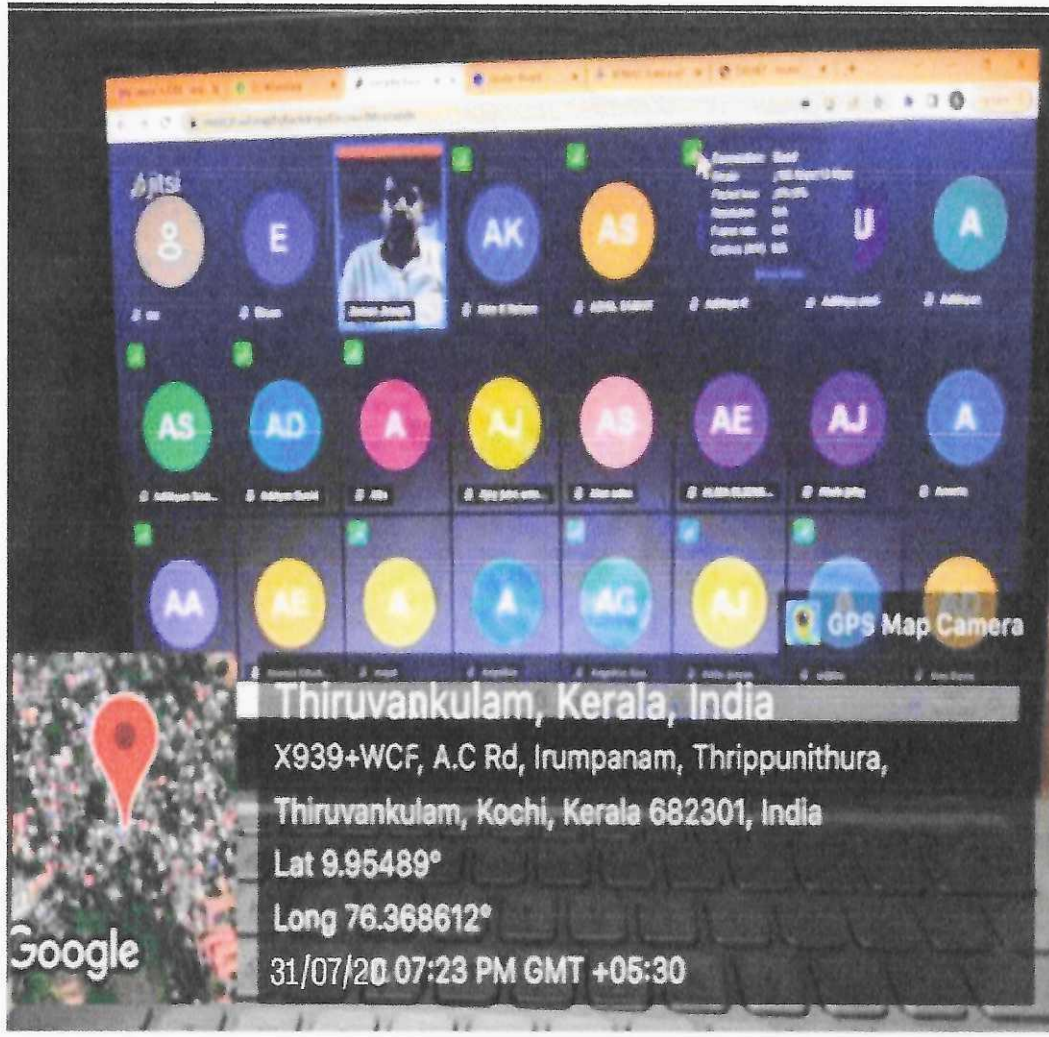

Additionally, the session focused on teaching effective test-taking strategies, such as time management and question prioritization, which are crucial for success in aptitude tests. Students also had the opportunity to learn from their mistakes, an invaluable aspect of the learning process. This reflective practice enabled them to understand their weaknesses and work on them, ultimately boosting their confidence and enhancing their overall performance in future tests.

The event was meticulously organized by the Department of Management under the guidance of Ms. Anila Varghese, the Placement In-charge. Her dedication and meticulous planning ensured the smooth execution of the session, providing students with an enriching and beneficial experience.

In conclusion, the Mock Aptitude Test session was a significant step towards equipping students with the necessary skills and knowledge to excel in aptitude assessments. The hands-on practice, expert guidance, and strategic insights gained from this session are expected to have a lasting positive impact on their academic and professional endeavors.

No. of Participants	35 Students
Resource Person	Mr. Jithu Tom Eapen, Assistant Professor, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39, Kerala
Outcome	Participants got specialized guidance and training for an improved performance and preparedness for their overseas education journey along with skills crucial for attaining confidence and readiness.
Organized by	Department of English, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39, Kerala
Faculty in charge	Ms. Kavitha Krishnadas, Placement In-charge, Department of English
Student in charge	Ms. Elika Mary Raji, VI Semester, BA English Literature, Communication and Journalism (Triple Main)

The Department of English, Communication, and Journalism conducted an intensive IELTS training program titled "IELTS Training for Overseas Education" from 4th December to 5th December, 2020. Ms. Kavitha Krishnadas, Assistant Professor at RCMAS, alongside the student coordinator, Elika Mary Raji coordinated the event held in Lecture Hall (506) from 10 pm to 4 pm. Mr. Jithu Tom Eapen, an Assistant Professor affiliated with RCMAS, fulfilled the role of the presenter during the event.

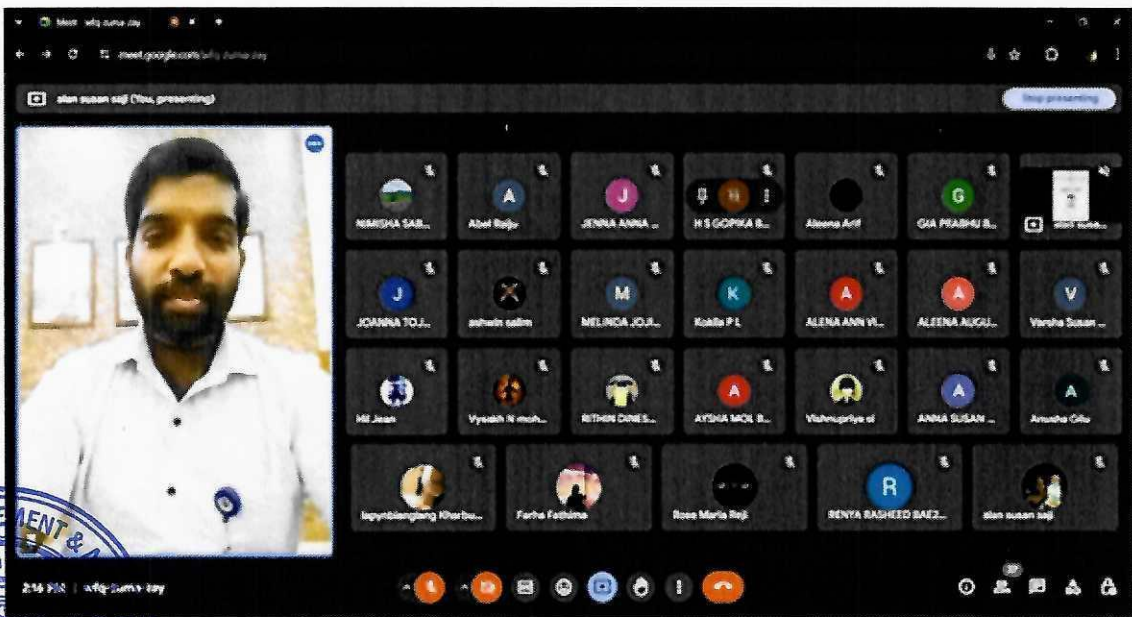

Elika Mary Raji

Thirty five students actively participated in this program, which focused on preparing them for the IELTS exam, a crucial step for pursuing higher education abroad. The training covered all aspects of the exam, including Listening, Reading, Writing, and Speaking, with specialized guidance and practice materials.

Participants engaged in interactive sessions, mock tests, and group discussions, enhancing their English proficiency and test-taking skills. The program's structured approach and personalized coaching contributed to increased confidence and readiness among the students.

The success of this competitive exam training was evident in the improved performance and preparedness of the participants for their overseas education journey. This initiative reflects the department's commitment to facilitating global learning opportunities and academic excellence among students.

Student in Charge	Ms. Alfia Shereef, V Semester, BCA

The "Empowering Your Career Journey" workshop was held on 25th June 2020, with 59 Computer Science students participating. Ms. Geethu Johny, an Assistant Professor from the Department of English at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, delivered the session. The primary objective was to equip students with essential skills and strategies for job interviews, thereby increasing their chances of securing their dream jobs.

The session was presented in two main parts: soft skills and interview tips. In the soft skills segment, Ms. Geethu elaborated on the importance of effective communication, body language and appropriate dress codes for interviews. Participants were helped to understand how these elements contribute to making a positive first impression. In the second part of the session, Ms. Geethu covered common interview questions, potential answers, and best practices for responding to challenging questions. She emphasized the importance of preparing S.T.A.R. (Situation, Task, Action, Result) answers for behavioral interview questions, so participants could effectively showcase their skills and experiences.

Throughout the session, participants were actively engaged in group discussions, role-plays, and Question-and-Answer sessions. These interactive activities allowed students to practice the skills taught and gain confidence in their abilities. The positive energy and enthusiasm displayed by students during the session were a testament to the impact of Ms. Geethu's presentation.

7. MBA Orientation Programme

Programme	MBA Orientation Programme
Date	3 August 2020
No. of Participants	62 Students
Resource Person	Ms. Geethu Giby, Assistant Professor, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39, Kerala
Outcome	The MBA Orientation Programme at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences was highly successful in achieving its objectives. It effectively familiarized incoming students with the curriculum, academic resources, and expectations of the program.
Organized by	Department of Management, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39, Kerala
Faculty in Charge	Ms. Raji T, Assistant Professor, Department of Management
Student in Charge	Ms. Simran Lee Freddy, BBA 4 Semester, Department of Management

On 3 August 2020, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences welcomed 62 incoming MBA students with an impactful Orientation Programme. This event, organized by the Department of Management, aimed to seamlessly integrate new students into the academic and social fabric of the college while setting clear expectations for their MBA journey.

Ms. Geethu Giby, an esteemed Assistant Professor from the college, took charge as the resource person for the Orientation Programme. Her expertise and guidance played a pivotal role in ensuring that the programme met its objectives of orienting students with the curriculum, academic resources, and overall expectations of the MBA programme.

Geethu Giby

The primary outcome of the MBA Orientation Programme was its success in familiarizing incoming students with the intricacies of their academic journey. Through informative sessions, interactive workshops, and guided tours of campus facilities, students gained a comprehensive understanding of the programme structure, course requirements, and available resources. This foundational knowledge provided them with the confidence and clarity needed to navigate their academic pursuits effectively.

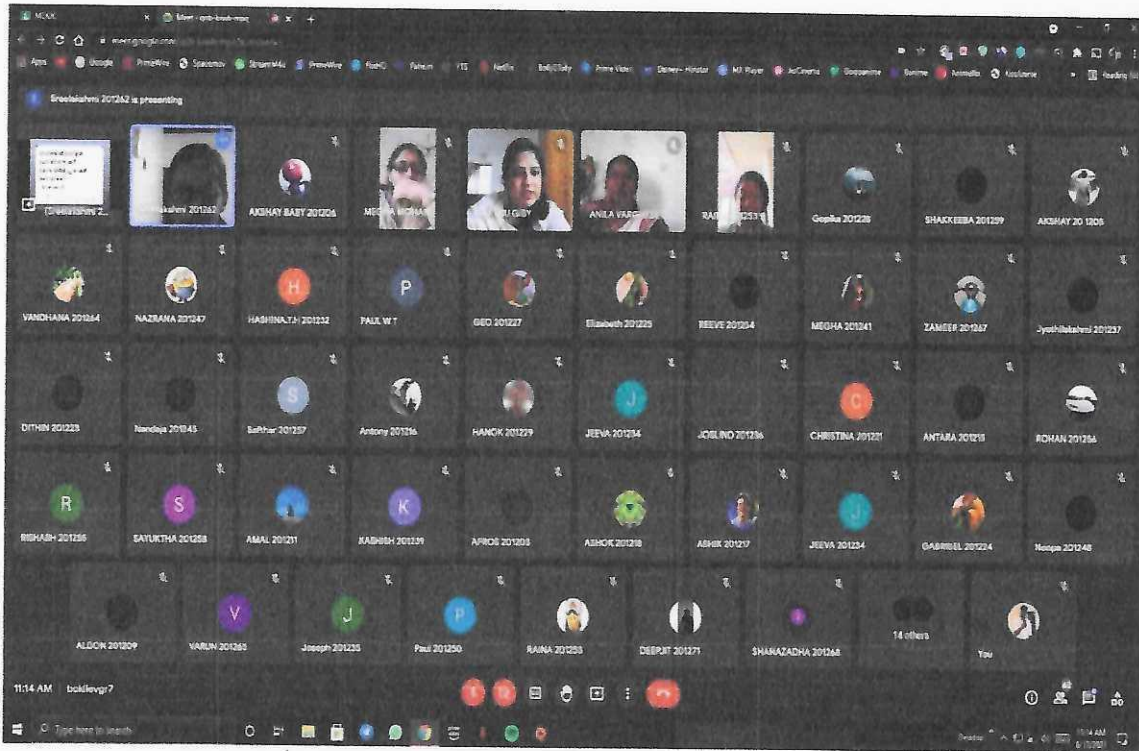

Under the leadership of Ms. Raji T, Assistant Professor in the Department of Management, the Orientation Programme was meticulously organized. Ms. Raji T's dedication and meticulous planning ensured that the event ran smoothly, facilitating meaningful interactions between students, faculty, and administrative staff.

In conclusion, the MBA Orientation Programme at Rajagiri College was a testament to the institution's commitment to academic excellence and student welfare. By providing new students with a supportive and informative introduction to their MBA journey, the college prepares them to excel both academically and professionally. Such initiatives not only foster a sense of community and belonging but also lay a strong foundation for students to achieve their career aspirations with confidence.
