Future Ready Ecosystem of Education

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) plays a crucial role in reviewing and enhancing learning outcomes within the educational institution. Future Ready Ecosystem of Education (FREE) empower students with the critical skills and futuristic knowledge they need to not only survive but thrive in this dynamic landscape. Future Ready Ecosystem of Education (FREE) is designed with the future of young individuals in mind emphasising the development of critical and analytical thinking, problem-solving, community outreach and adaptability—skills that are crucial for success. Under FREE IQAC envisions academic excellence and holistic development, cultural inclusivity, professional development, inculcating innovative technology, research and emerging endeavours as well as strengthening future networks and relationships.

1. Academic Excellence

Over the past five years, Rajagiri has achieved a remarkable academic excellence which is reflected in the university rank attainment by Rajagiri students over the last five years. Over 162 ranks have been attained by students with an average pass percentage of 89 in the last five years. The consistent record of students achieving top ranks in university exams and the high pass rates year after year are clear indicators of academic excellence of the institutions. Every department analyses results from university examinations to identify the trends, strengths, and areas for improvement which helps in curriculum adjustments and teaching strategies. By systematically reviewing and interpreting this data, departments can make informed decisions to enhance educational quality, improve student outcomes, and ensure that teaching strategies are aligned with academic goals. This process not only helps in addressing current challenges but also in proactively adapting to changing educational needs and standards.

- 2. Enhancement of Academic and Professional Excellence
- Placements: IQAC monitors and evaluates placement data to ensure that graduates are securing relevant employment opportunities, reflecting the effectiveness of the educational program in preparing students for the job market.
- Higher Studies: Assesses the success rate of graduates pursuing advanced degrees to ensure that the program prepares students for further academic pursuits.
- Entrepreneurship: Supports and tracks the success of graduates who start their own businesses or engage in entrepreneurial activities, ensuring that the program fosters the necessary skills and mindset for entrepreneurship.

2019-2023

Placement Cell at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences is called as Career Showcase. Placement team at Rajagiri helps the student to reach the Business World. Career Showcase also helps the students for improving their interpersonal skills and abilities. The college lays great emphasis on industrial training for the students.
