Report on Planting Future Prosperity: Thalir Saplings

Distribution to LPS Irumpanam

Programme	Planting Future Prosperity: Thalir Saplings Distribution to LPS Irumpanam
Date	5th June 2023
No.of Participants	50
Outcome	Instilled a sense of responsibility towards nature and promoted green practices for a sustainable future.
Organised by	NSS Unit No. 236
Faculty in charge	Dr. Chandralal V.S & Ms. Hitha P.S
Student in charge	Mr. Navaneeth K R & Ms. Neha Jerson

The objective of celebrating Environment Day is to raise awareness about the importance of environmental conservation and promote sustainable practices. By planting the saplings, we aim to foster environmental awareness, promote green spaces and encourage sustainability and also foster a sense of responsibility. On June 5 2023, the NSS Unit No. 236 of Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad, took a significant step by officially adopting LPS Irumpanam. Following this adoption, we embarked on an initiative to distribute saplings to the children in the community for planting. This endeavour was motivated by our commitment to environmental conservation and community engagement. By fostering a culture of tree planting among the children, we aimed to instill a sense of responsibility towards nature and promote green practices for a sustainable future.

Numerous NSS volunteers, alongside Programme Officer Dr. Chandralal V S, and faculty members including Ms. Hitha P S and Ms. Heera B, actively participated in this endeavour. Their collective involvement underscored the dedication of the college community towards environmental stewardship and community welfare.

Report on Swachata Ki Seva - Cleaning Drive at LPS Irumpanam

Programme	Swachata Ki Seva - Cleaning Drive At LPS Irumpanam
Date	3rd October 2023
No.of Participants	NSS Volunteers
Outcome	Improves sanitation and creates a healthier learning environment for students.
Organised by	NSS Unit No. 236
Faculty in charge	Dr. Chandralal.V.S & Ms. Hitha P.S
Student in charge	Mr. Navaneeth K.R & Ms. Neha Jerson

On October 3rd, 2023, NSS Unit No. 236 of Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad, undertook a commendable cleaning initiative at LP School, Irumpanam, as part of their observance of Gandhi Jayanthi. Led by Programme Officer Dr. Chandralal V S, a dedicated group of volunteers enthusiastically participated in cleaning the premises of the school. The primary objective of this activity was multifaceted: to promote cleanliness and uphold a healthy environment, raise awareness about the importance of cleanliness and hygiene, nurture a sense of civic responsibility among students, enhance the educational setting for the school children, and cultivate a spirit of community engagement and social responsibility.

The participation of volunteers alongside Programme Officer Dr. Chandralal V S not only aimed to clean up LP School, Irumpanam, but also symbolised a deep reverence for Gandhi's principles of cleanliness and social upliftment. By actively engaging in this initiative, the NSS unit exemplified their commitment to improving society through practical action and community service. The cleaning drive served as a poignant reminder that small, collective efforts can contribute significantly to the betterment of our surroundings and society at large.

In conclusion, the cleaning drive organised by NSS Unit No. 236 underscored the enduring relevance of Gandhi's teachings on cleanliness and social responsibility. By honouring Gandhi Jayanthi with this meaningful activity, the volunteers not only paid homage to his legacy but also inspired others to follow in his footsteps by actively participating in initiatives that promote cleanliness, community welfare, and sustainable development.

Report on Pamphlet Distribution and Awareness Campaign on the Importance of Environment Conservation.

Programme	Pamphlet Distribution and Awareness Campaign on the Importance of Environment Conservation.
Date	16th October 2023
No.of Participants	Residents of Thrikkakara Panchayath
Outcome	Raised awareness about proper waste disposal practices among the local community
Organised by	Department of Commerce
Faculty in charge	Ms. Vinitha Varghese & Dr. Chandralal V S
Student in charge	Mr. Mohammed Naufel

Students of B.Com Model 2 Logistics recently organised an impactful awareness campaign in Thrikkakara focused on promoting proper waste disposal practices within the local community. The initiative aimed to educate residents about various aspects of waste management, including recycling techniques and the crucial role of environmental conservation. As part of this effort, students distributed informative pamphlets detailing effective waste management strategies. They also conducted interactive sessions and discussions to highlight the detrimental effects of improper waste disposal on the environment and public health.

The campaign garnered enthusiastic participation from Thrikkakara residents, who showed keen interest in adopting eco-friendly practices in their daily routines. Feedback from the community was overwhelmingly positive, indicating a growing awareness and commitment to responsible waste management. Overall, the initiative successfully fostered environmental consciousness and encouraged residents to take proactive steps towards maintaining a cleaner and healthier living environment.

In conclusion, the students' efforts in organising this awareness campaign have

Report on Ecologix- Cloth Kits Distribution

Programme	Ecologix- Cloth kits distribution
Date	16th October 2023
No.of Participants	Residents of Kakkanad Collectorate Premises
Outcome	Introduced a practice of reducing plastic carry bag usage by replacing it with cloth carry bags among the local community.
Organised by	Department of Commerce
Faculty in charge	Ms. Vinitha Varghese & Dr. Chandralal V S
Student in charge	Mr. Mohammed Shajir T. P & Muhammed Naufel

The "Ecologix-Cloth Kit Distribution" initiative, led by students from the Commerce Department, was a collaborative effort aimed at tackling the critical issue of environmental sustainability. The primary objective was to promote eco-friendly alternatives to plastic bags by distributing cloth kits within the community. This event underscored the importance of responsible consumer behaviour in mitigating the environmental impact of single-use plastics.

The planning phase of the event involved meticulous coordination among students, faculty members, and external stakeholders. Together, they identified the target audience, procured cloth kits, and obtained necessary permissions. On the day of the event, held at the Collectorate, students efficiently distributed the cloth kits, supported by volunteers who engaged attendees with information on sustainability practices. This structured approach not only facilitated the adoption of eco-friendly habits but also fostered meaningful interactions between students and community members. Through interactive sessions and discussions, participants were encouraged to embrace sustainable choices and contribute to environmental preservation.

Report on Cleaning Drive- Bus Stop Kadayirippu

Programme	Cleaning Drive-Bus Stop Kadayirippu
Date	23 December 2023
No.of Participants	NSS Volunteers
Outcome	Improved Cleanliness, fostering a cleaner and more welcoming environment for commuters
Organised by	NSS Unit 236
Faculty in charge	Dr.Chandralal V.S & Ms. Hitha P.S
Student in charge	Mr. Karthik Lal & Mr. Joel Joji

On December 23, 2023, the NSS Unit 236 organised a successful Cleaning Drive at the Kadayirippu Bus Stop. The initiative was led by faculty members Dr. Chandralal V.S and Ms. Hitha P.S, with Mr. Karthik Lal and Mr. Joel Joji taking charge as student leaders. A total of NSS volunteers participated enthusiastically in this endeavour, aimed at enhancing the cleanliness and overall environment of the bus stop, thereby creating a more welcoming space for commuters.

The Cleaning Drive commenced early in the morning and lasted for several hours. Volunteers actively engaged in tasks such as clearing litter, sweeping the area, and ensuring proper disposal of waste. Through their concerted efforts, significant improvements in cleanliness were achieved, visibly transforming the bus stop into a tidier and more organised place. This not only contributed to enhancing the aesthetic appeal of the surroundings but also promoted a sense of civic responsibility among the volunteers and the community at large.

The outcome of the Cleaning Drive was highly positive. The bus stop at Kadayirippu now serves as a model of cleanliness, reflecting the dedication and hard work of the NSS volunteers and organisers. The initiative not only addressed

Student in charge	Ms. Neha Jerson & Mr. Navaneeth K.R

On December 24, 2023, marking the third day of the 7-day residential camp organised by the NSS Unit No. 236 of Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, we celebrated Christmas Eve with a heartfelt gesture. Our volunteers ventured into the surrounding areas of Kadayiruppu Govt. School to spread joy through carolling. Adding to the festive spirit, Santa himself joined our ranks. Alongside the carolling, we launched 'PARINAMAM', a program dedicated to distributing free cloth bags to every household we visited.

The carolling season served not only to uplift spirits but also to forge stronger bonds with the local community. Santa's presence brought smiles and laughter, particularly among the children. Simultaneously, 'PARINAMAM' aimed to promote environmental sustainability by encouraging the use of reusable cloth bags over disposable plastic ones. This initiative not only addressed the practical need for eco-friendly alternatives but also raised awareness about reducing plastic waste and its detrimental effects on the environment. By distributing cloth bags, we aimed to foster a culture of responsible consumption and environmental stewardship within the community.

In conclusion, the activities carried out by NSS Unit No. 236 on Christmas Eve exemplified the spirit of service and compassion. Through the combined efforts of caroling and distributing cloth bags, we not only spread festive cheer but also contributed towards a cleaner and greener environment.

On December 26, 2023, the NSS Unit No. 236 of Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences embarked on a meaningful endeavour following our morning routines. Dividing our volunteers into groups, we dedicated ourselves to cleaning the school grounds. This initiative not only aimed to maintain cleanliness but also fostered a sense of responsibility and community spirit among the participants.

Starting promptly at 9 AM, each group diligently worked to ensure thorough cleanliness of the school grounds. The efforts continued until 12 PM, culminating in a visibly cleaner and more organised environment. This activity highlighted the commitment of our volunteers to uphold hygiene standards within our educational institution. By actively participating in this cleanup initiative, we demonstrated our collective dedication to maintaining a conducive and pleasant environment for students, faculty, and staff alike.

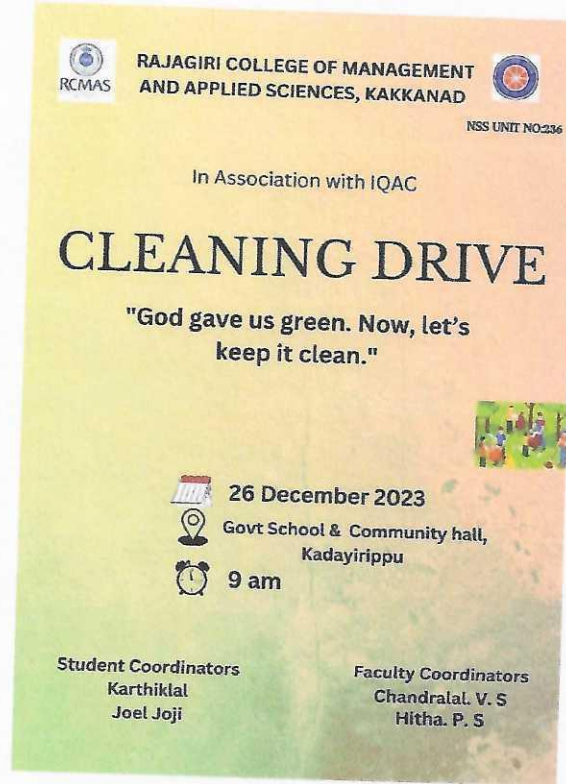

In conclusion, the cleaning initiative led by the NSS Unit No. 236 on December 26, 2023, exemplified the positive impact of collaborative effort and community engagement. Beyond just physical cleanliness, the activity promoted a sense of pride and ownership among participants towards their school environment.

On the sixth day of the 7-day residential camp organised by NSS Unit No. 236 of Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, the volunteers embarked on a significant community service project. The day began with the usual morning routine, which invigorated the team for the tasks ahead. After breakfast, the volunteers, accompanied by their dedicated faculty members, set off to Kadayirippu Hospital. The primary goal was to clean the hospital premises and an old well, ensuring a healthier environment for the local community.

Upon arriving at the hospital around 9 AM, the team efficiently divided into smaller groups, each assigned to specific areas for cleaning. The volunteers approached their tasks with enthusiasm and dedication, scrubbing, sweeping, and organising various sections of the hospital. Their collective efforts transformed the space, making it much cleaner and more pleasant for patients and staff alike. By 11 AM, the hospital cleaning was successfully completed, and the volunteers were ready to tackle the next challenge.

The next task involved cleaning a very old well located within the hospital premises. This well had been neglected for years, accumulating debris and dirt. Despite the challenging nature of the task, the volunteers remained undeterred. They worked tirelessly, drawing from the well a sense of community spirit and cooperation. The active participation of all volunteers ensured that the well was thoroughly cleaned, restoring it to a usable state. The day's activities not only enhanced the hospital environment but also fostered a sense of camaraderie and achievement among the volunteers.

On February 20, 2024, during our Nature Camp at Chinnar Wildlife Sanctuary, we engaged in a significant cleaning drive with the assistance of Forest Officers. Divided into several groups, each tasked with specific areas, we commenced the cleanup efforts promptly at 9:30 AM. The primary focus was to rid the sanctuary of plastic waste, ensuring a cleaner and safer environment for its inhabitants and visitors alike.

Under the guidance of Program Officer Dr. Chandralal V S, along with Ms. Hitha, NSS volunteers, and Forest Officers, our collective efforts bore fruit by 12:30 PM, as we successfully cleared all plastic litter from designated areas. This initiative not only aimed to maintain the pristine beauty of Chinnar Wildlife Sanctuary but also underscored the importance of environmental stewardship. By responsibly disposing of the collected waste, we contributed to preserving the natural habitat and promoting sustainable practices within the sanctuary.

In conclusion, the cleaning drive during our Nature Camp at Chinnar Wildlife Sanctuary exemplified the positive impact of collaborative conservation efforts. Through active participation and dedication to cleanliness, we demonstrate our commitment to environmental responsibility. Such initiatives are pivotal in safeguarding natural ecosystems and inspiring others to take proactive steps towards preserving our natural heritage for future generations.

Report on Distribution of Cloth and Jute Bags in the Neighborhood Areas of Rajagiri

Programme	Distribution of Cloth and Jute bags in the Neighbourhood areas of Rajagiri
Date	12th April 2024
Beneficiaries	Residents of Kakkanad Neighbouring locality
Outcome	Encouraged eco-friendly practices by distributing reusable bags, reducing plastic waste and promoting sustainability
Organised by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Ms. Sunitha Varghese
Student in charge	Ms. Sreelakshmi Pisharadi

On April 12, 2024, the Department of Management at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad, spearheaded a commendable initiative aimed at distributing cloth and jute bags in local neighbourhoods. This program not only sought to distribute these sustainable alternatives but also aimed to raise awareness about the critical importance of adopting environmentally friendly products in everyday life.

Cloth and jute bags are integral components of this initiative, chosen for their reusability and biodegradability. By encouraging their use, the organisers aimed to minimise pollution caused by single-use plastic bags. The initiative was supported by the dedicated efforts of faculty and students who played pivotal roles in organising and executing the distribution drive. Their commitment underscored the college's emphasis on social responsibility and sustainable practices. By actively engaging with the community, they promoted a shift towards more conscientious consumption patterns. Through their collective action, they demonstrated the potential for educational institutions to lead by example and inspire positive change in societal behaviour.

Report on Cleaning Essentials Drive to Orphanage

Programme	Supply of Cleaning essentials to orphanage
Date	5th October 2023
No. of Participants	16 inmates of Home of Faith orphanage
Outcome	Support the residents of the Home of Faith Orphanage by providing them with essential cleaning supplies
Organised by	Jesus Youth
Faculty in charge	Ms. Vinitha Varghese
Student in charge	Mr. Kevin Biju

The Cleaning Essentials Drive, conducted on October 5th, 2023, demonstrated the spirit of compassion and community service. Organised by the JY club, the drive aimed to support the residents of the Home of Faith Orphanage by providing them with essential cleaning supplies. With the generous contributions of club members and supporters, a variety of cleaning essentials such as detergents, soaps, brushes, and disinfectants were collected for donation.

A total of 16 inmates at the Home of Faith Orphanage benefited from the donations, receiving much-needed supplies to maintain cleanliness and hygiene within their living environment. The initiative not only addressed the practical needs of the orphanage residents but also demonstrated the unity and care from the wider community. By extending a helping hand to those in need, the Cleaning Essentials Drive fostered a sense of empathy and social responsibility among the participants, highlighting the importance of collective action in making a positive impact on the lives of others.

Through initiatives like the Cleaning Essentials Drive, the JY club declared its commitment to serving the community and making a difference in the lives of vulnerable individuals. By providing essential cleaning supplies to the residents of the Home of Faith Orphanage, the drive contributed to creating a safe and hygienic living environment, promoting the well-being and dignity of the orphanage inmates.

Report on Visit to Thattekkad Bird Sanctuary and Session on How to Protect Nature

Programme	Visit to Thattekkad Bird Sanctuary and Session on 'How to Protect Nature' as part of Nature Study Camp
Date	01/12/2022 - 03/12/2022
No. Of Participants	44 Students
Outcome	Learned about various species of birds and animals as part of trekking
Organised by	Nature Club & NSS Unit no 236
Faculty in charge	Dr.Chandralal V S & Ms. Hitha P S
Student in charge	Mr. Navaneeth K R

The visit to Thattekkad Bird Sanctuary was a truly enchanting experience, immersing in the rich biodiversity of Kerala's wilderness. As everyone traversed the sanctuary's lush trails, we encountered a myriad of avian species, from the vibrant plumage of the Malabar Grey Hornbill to the elusive Indian Pitta. The sanctuary's serene ambiance and diverse ecosystem provided a perfect setting for observing these winged wonders in their natural habitat. It was heartening to witness the efforts of the local community and authorities to conserve and protect this invaluable sanctuary, fostering an environment where both birds and nature enthusiasts could thrive.

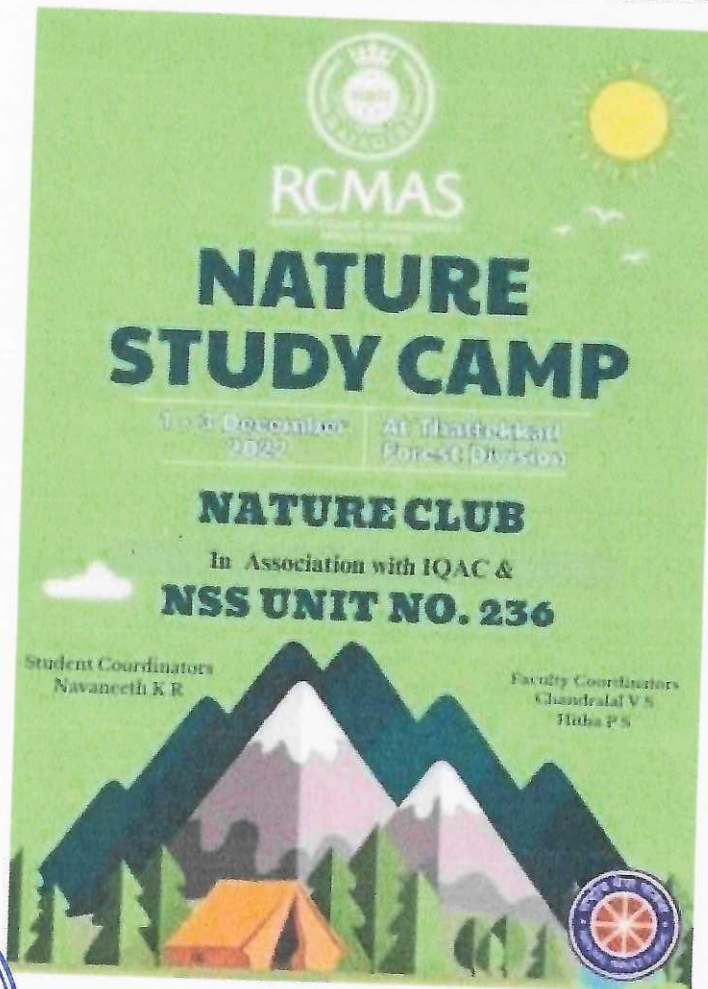

The highlight of the visit was the engaging session conducted by the nature club of Rajagiri College on 'How to protect nature.' The knowledgeable speakers not only shed light on the ecological significance of places like Thattekkadu but also emphasised the role each individual can play in preserving our environment. They discussed sustainable practices, the importance of wildlife conservation, and the need for responsible tourism. The session was not just informative but also motivational, inspiring attendees to become stewards of the environment and actively contribute to the preservation of natural habitats.

Navaneeth K R

The Nature Club of Rajagiri College deserves commendation for organizing such an insightful session that not only complemented the visit to Thattekkad Bird Sanctuary but also instilled a sense of responsibility among participants. As we learned about the delicate balance of ecosystems and the threats faced by nature, it became apparent that collective efforts are crucial in safeguarding our planet's biodiversity. The visit and session left a lasting impression, underscoring the significance of nature conservation and encouraging a sense of responsibility towards the environment.

Report on Environmental Stewardship: Cleaning and Greening the Devi Vilasam School Premises

Programme	Environmental Stewardship: Cleaning and Greening the Devi Vilasam School Premises
Date	11 March 2022
Beneficiaries	Staff and students of Devi Vilasam School Nayarambalam
Outcome	Improved the school's environment, promoting sustainability and instilling a sense of responsibility among students.
Organised by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Mr. W T Paul
Student in charge	Mr. Ashok G

On March 11, 2022, the Department of Management organised a commendable initiative at Devi Vilasam School, Nayarambalam, focusing on the cleaning of school premises. This program was designed not only to tidy up the school environment but also to promote hygiene and create a safe space for students, teachers, and staff.

The cleaning initiative at Devi Vilasam School underscored its significance in maintaining a conducive learning environment. By ensuring cleanliness within the school premises and its surroundings, the organisers aimed to enhance the overall well-being of everyone associated with the school community. Students and faculty members actively participated in this endeavour, showcasing their dedication to social responsibility and community service. Their collective effort not only beautified the school but also instilled a sense of pride and responsibility among the students, fostering a positive atmosphere for learning and growth.

In conclusion, the cleaning initiative organised by the Department of Management at Devi Vilasam School exemplified the power of collaborative action in creating tangible improvements. By prioritising cleanliness and hygiene, the initiative not only benefited the immediate school environment but also promoted a culture of

Report on Sustainable Living Campaign: Jute Bag Distribution

Programme	Sustainable Living Campaign: Jute Bag Distribution to Neighbourhood Community
Date	18 th June 2019
Beneficiaries	Neighbouring Community
Outcome	Promoted sustainable living by encouraging the use of jute bags, reducing reliance on plastic bags.
Organised by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Mr. W T Paul
Student in charge	Mr. Vaishakh V Gopal

On the 18th of June 2019, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences initiated a Sustainable Living Campaign aimed at promoting eco-friendly practices within the local community surrounding the campus. Organised by the Department of Management in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), the campaign focused on reducing plastic bag usage by distributing jute bags to residents.

Mr. W T Paul, Assistant Professor in the Department of Management, took the lead as the faculty in charge of the campaign. Mr. Vaishakh V Gopal, a dedicated BBA student from the same department, served as the student coordinator, overseeing the planning and execution of the jute bag distribution.

The venue for this initiative was the neighbourhood area adjacent to Rajagiri College, where volunteers distributed jute bags and engaged with residents to raise awareness about the environmental benefits of using reusable bags. The campaign aimed to instill a habit of sustainable living by encouraging the community to replace single-use plastic bags with more environmentally friendly alternatives.

W T Paul

The collaboration between Rajagiri College and the local community highlighted the institution's commitment to fostering environmental consciousness and responsible citizenship. By promoting the use of jute bags, the campaign sought to contribute to the reduction of plastic waste and support sustainable practices that benefit both present and future generations.

In conclusion, the Sustainable Living Campaign through jute bag distribution exemplifies Rajagiri College's proactive approach in advocating for environmental stewardship at a grassroots level. By empowering residents with eco-friendly alternatives, the initiative aimed to inspire positive behavioural changes and cultivate a more sustainable community ethos.

Report on Green Community Initiative: Distribution of Plant Saplings and Grow Bags

Programme	Collection and Distribution of Plant Saplings and Grow Bags
Date	28 November 2019
Beneficiaries	Residents of the College Neighbourhood
Outcome	The initiative contributed to the local ecosystem and encouraged a culture of sustainability and community engagement.
Organised by	Department of Commerce
Faculty in charge	Ms. Sunitha Varghese
Student-in-Charge	Mr. Paul Sebastian

The Department of Commerce demonstrated its commitment to environmental sustainability on November 28, 2019. Under the guidance of Ms. Sunitha Varghese, the faculty in charge, the department spearheaded a project to collect plant saplings and distribute them to nearby houses. This eco-friendly initiative aimed not only to contribute to the greening of the local community but also to raise awareness about the importance of afforestation for a healthier environment.

Students and faculty actively participated in collecting a variety of plant saplings, considering factors such as local climate and soil conditions to ensure the successful growth of the distributed plants. The distribution process was carried out with an emphasis on educating residents about the positive impact of planting trees on air quality, biodiversity, and overall well-being. Ms. Sunitha Varghese's leadership and the collective effort of the Department of Commerce facilitated a meaningful engagement with the community, promoting a sense of environmental responsibility and fostering a connection between the academic institution and its surrounding neighborhood.

Paul Sebastian

This initiative reflects the department's commitment to social and environmental stewardship, extending its influence beyond the academic curriculum. By distributing plant saplings, the Department of Commerce not only contributed to the local ecosystem but also encouraged a culture of sustainability and community engagement among its students and faculty. Ms. Sunitha Varghese's proactive approach in steering this initiative showcases the potential for academic institutions to play a pivotal role in promoting environmental consciousness and positive community impact.
