Outcome	To promote awareness on the importance of voting rights .
Organized by	NSS Unit No.236
Faculty-in-Charge	Ms. Hitha P S
Student-in-Charge	Ms. Neha Jerson

On April 2nd, 2024, the NSS unit conducted a vigorous campaign aimed at promoting awareness on the importance of voting rights among students and the wider community. The campaign was strategically timed to coincide with the upcoming elections, emphasising civic responsibility and active participation in the democratic process. Through a series of engaging activities and informative sessions, the NSS unit endeavoured to empower individuals with knowledge about their voting rights and encourage them to exercise this fundamental democratic privilege.

The campaign included informative talks highlighting the historical significance of voting rights and their role in shaping the nation's future. NSS volunteers organized interactive sessions to educate participants about voter registration procedures, polling locations, and the significance of making informed choices. The enthusiastic participation of students and community members underscored the campaign's success in fostering a sense of civic duty and reinforcing the importance of each vote in shaping the collective destiny of our society.

This initiative promoted awareness and engagement in voting rights. It successfully instilled a sense of responsibility and empowerment among participants, reinforcing the vital role of voting in upholding democracy and shaping the future of our nation.

Outcome	To instil a sense of civic duty and promote active participation in the democratic process.
Organized by	NSS Unit No.236
Faculty-in-Charge	Ms. Hitha.P.S
Student-in-Charge	Ms. Adhila.P.A

NSS at Rajagiri College orchestrated a meaningful Voters Day pledge event, aimed at enhancing civic engagement among students. The event centred around a solemn pledge that underscored the significance of exercising the right to vote and being well-informed citizens. Participants were encouraged to pledge their commitment to vote responsibly and to inspire others to follow suit. This initiative sought to cultivate a deep-rooted sense of civic responsibility and to encourage enthusiastic participation in the democratic process.

The pledge event organised by NSS at Rajagiri College was designed to imbue students with a strong sense of civic duty. By emphasising the importance of voting and informed citizenship, the event aimed to empower students to become conscientious and proactive members of society. Attendees were motivated to understand their role in shaping the future through political participation and to contribute positively to the democratic fabric of the nation.

Through initiatives like the Voters Day pledge event, NSS at Rajagiri College strives to nurture future leaders and bolster grassroots democracy. By instilling values of civic engagement and responsibility early on, the organisation aims to foster a generation of informed and active citizens who play pivotal roles in shaping a vibrant and inclusive democracy.

No. of Participants	300
Outcome	Acquired knowledge on the lifetime of our Father of Nation Mahatma Gandhi.
Organized by	NSS Unit No.236
Faculty-in-Charge	Ms. Hitha P S
Student-in-Charge	Mr. Alan Alias

From January 29th to 31st, 2024, the NSS Unit, under the guidance of Dr. Chandralal, organized "Gandhi Darshan - Gandhi's Timeless Trail". This exhibition showcased the life and principles of Mahatma Gandhi through the creative expressions of over 600 students from diverse schools and colleges. The event aimed to commemorate Gandhi's legacy and inspire the younger generation with his values of truth, nonviolence, and social harmony.

The exhibition featured a wide array of artistic displays, including paintings, sculptures, and multimedia presentations, each reflecting aspects of Gandhi's life, philosophy, and contributions to India's freedom struggle. Students passionately portrayed Gandhi's teachings on peace, unity, and self-sufficiency, resonating deeply with visitors who gained insight into his timeless relevance in today's world.

This impactful event ensured a seamless flow of activities and maintained the exhibition's focus on educating and enlightening participants about Gandhi's enduring principles. More than 600 students from various schools and colleges enthusiastically participated. The NSS Unit's efforts were met with enthusiastic participation and positive feedback from attendees, affirming the event's success in fostering a deeper understanding and appreciation of Gandhi's legacy among the youth.

Report on Documentary on Birth of Human Rights

Programme	Documentary on Birth of Human Rights
Date	11 December 2023
No. of Participants	40
Outcome	To create awareness on how the concept of human rights came into being
Organized by	Wings of Wisdom Club
Faculty-in-Charge	Ms. Sunitha Varghese
Student-in-Charge	Mr. Abin T Manoj

A documentary on the formation of Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) & importance of human rights was shown to wings of wisdom club members in the conference hall. Students - By watching a documentary on the birth of human rights and the UDHR, students can gain a deeper understanding of the historical context, key figures involved, and the principles underlying human rights. Understanding the historical context in which the UDHR was created is crucial for grasping its significance.

This documentary provides insight into the aftermath of World War II, the atrocities committed during the war, and the international community's response in the form of the UDHR. Learning about the struggles and sacrifices made by individuals and groups to establish human rights can instil a greater appreciation for the rights that many people often take for granted today. Students may develop empathy and understanding for those who have fought for basic human dignity and equality. The UDHR is a universal document that applies to people of all nations and backgrounds. Watching a documentary on its birth can broaden students' awareness of human rights issues beyond their own communities and cultures, fostering a sense of global citizenship and responsibility.

Report on "Read The Preamble"

Programme	Read the Preamble
Date	26 November 2023
No. of Participants	25
Outcome	Developing civic awareness and understanding of the principles on which the nation is founded.
Organized by	Wings of Wisdom Club
Faculty-in-Charge	Ms. Sunitha Varghese
Student-in-Charge	Mr. Abin T Manoj

In commemoration of Constitution Day, an initiative was launched on the MyGov portal inviting students to engage in reading and understanding the Preamble online, followed by an option to download a certificate. This activity aimed to foster civic awareness among students by encouraging them to delve into the foundational principles of the nation. By exploring the Preamble, students could gain valuable insights into the core values and ideals that underpin the country's governance. Reading and comprehending the Preamble of the constitution is pivotal for students as it helps them develop a deeper understanding of the principles on which the nation is built.

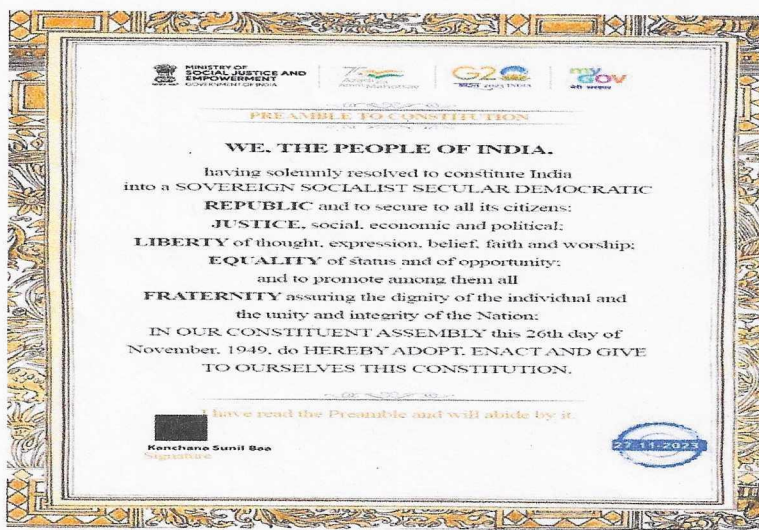

It serves as a fundamental text through which students can grasp the essence of their country's democratic framework and constitutional commitments. Through this engagement, students not only enhance their legal literacy but also gain clarity on the rights and responsibilities bestowed upon citizens. Engaging with the Preamble allows students to reflect on the significance of democratic principles and constitutional values in shaping a just and inclusive society.

It provides them with an opportunity to appreciate the democratic ethos and the foundational aspirations of the nation's forebearers. By promoting active participation in activities like 'Read the Preamble' on the MyGov portal, initiatives aim to instil a sense of civic duty and empower students to contribute meaningfully to the ongoing evolution of their nation's democratic heritage.

Student in charge	Ms. Neha Jerson

NSS unit no. 236 and Anti-Drug addiction cell [Asaad Sena] in association with IQAC, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, kakkanad conducted Placard making competition as part of the International day against drug abuse. Students were asked to submit their Placards on 26th june 2023. The objective of conducting a Placard competition is to raise awareness about the harmful effects of drug abuse and promote a drug-free lifestyle. It creates a creative platform for participants to express their anti-drug messages through visually appealing cards.

The competition not only raised awareness about the dangers of drug abuse but also engaged students in actively thinking about and expressing their views on this pressing social issue. Through their artistic creations, participants were able to convey compelling anti-drug messages, potentially reaching and influencing a wider audience within the college community. This initiative demonstrates the college's commitment to fostering a drug-free environment and empowering students to be advocates for positive change. The success of this event underscores the effectiveness of combining creativity with social awareness campaigns, setting a strong foundation for ongoing efforts to combat drug abuse and promote healthier lifestyle choices among young people.

Report on Svatanya - Patriotic Reel Making Contest

Program	Svatanya - Patriotic Reel and Flash Mob
Date	16 August 2022
No. of Participants	12
Outcome	The event successfully united students in a creative celebration of patriotism, resulting in highly engaging and widely shared reels that honoured India's heritage.
Organized by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Ms. Ardra C Michael
Student in charge	Ms. Noopa Anna Justus

To celebrate Independence Day and boost patriotic spirit, the Department of Management at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Kakkanad organized an event titled "SVATANYA: Patriotic Reel & Flash Mob." This event aimed to pay tribute to both the celebrated and unsung heroes who sacrificed their lives during India's freedom struggle. The event was held on August 15, 2022, marking the 76th year of Indian Independence.

As part of the celebrations, the students of the Department of Management performed a patriotic dance. This performance was a heartfelt tribute to the freedom fighters and aimed to inspire a sense of national pride and unity among the students and the broader community. The dance was creatively choreographed to depict the struggles and triumphs of India's journey to independence, evoking strong emotions and a sense of reverence for the nation's history.

Ardra C Michael

The participation in the contest was impressive, with numerous students from various departments contributing their unique perspectives on patriotism. Each reel was a creative interpretation of the theme, showcasing the students' innovative ideas and deep respect for India's heritage.

The reels varied in style, including solo performances, group dances, and dramatic skits, all unified by a strong patriotic message. This innovative approach not only allowed the students to showcase their talent and express their patriotism but also engaged the digital community, spreading the message of national pride beyond the campus. The event was coordinated by faculty member Ms. Ardra C. Michael and student coordinator Ms. Noopa Anna Justus.

The event was a significant success, achieving its objective of honoring India's independence and the heroes who fought for it. The patriotic reel received positive feedback and widespread appreciation, highlighting the students' dedication and creativity. Through SVATANYA, the Department of Management successfully instilled a renewed sense of patriotism among the participants and viewers, paying a fitting tribute to India's glorious past and the sacrifices made for its freedom.

Report on Road Safety Awareness Campaign

Programme	Road Safety Awareness Campaign
Date	14 June 2019
Outcome	The students became aware of the role that academic institutions can play in shaping a conscientious and safety-conscious community.
Organized by	Department of Computer Science
Faculty-in-Charge	Mr. Joby Jacob
Student-in-Charge	Ms. Minza C Manoj

The Department of Computer Science at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences launched a comprehensive road safety awareness campaign within the campus premises, introducing an action pack that included informative posters aimed at promoting responsible behavior on the roads. The initiative, which took place over the course of several weeks, sought to address the critical issue of road safety and instill a sense of responsibility among the campus community. The action pack comprised visually striking and informative posters strategically placed in key areas of the campus, serving as a constant reminder of the importance of adhering to traffic rules and fostering a culture of safety.

The posters covered a range of road safety topics, including the significance of wearing helmets, seat belts, and pedestrian safety measures. The Department of Computer Science collaborated with graphic design students to create visually appealing and impactful posters that effectively conveyed the key messages. The initiative was not only intended to raise awareness but also to actively engage the campus community in discussions about safe road practices. By integrating technology and creative design, the department successfully leveraged its resources to create a visually compelling campaign that captured the attention of students, faculty, and staff alike.

This road safety campaign aligns with the department's commitment to promoting a safe and responsible environment within the campus. Beyond just providing theoretical knowledge, the action pack with posters serves as a tangible and continuous reminder for individuals to prioritize safety in their daily commutes. The initiative underscores the role that academic institutions can play in shaping a conscientious and safety-conscious community, extending the impact beyond the confines of the classroom to the broader campus environment.

Report on Anti Drug Awareness Campaign

Programme	As part of the Anti-Drug campaign posters were displayed in the canteen.
Date	26 June 2019
No of participants	Students of Computer Science department
Outcome	The campaign raised awareness about the dangers of substance abuse, emphasizing the commitment to the well-being and safety of the student body.
Organized by	Department of Computer Science
Faculty-in-Charge	Mr. Sijo jacob
Student-in-Charge	Mr. Joel George

The Department of Computer Science took a proactive step in fostering a healthy and drug-free campus environment by organizing an Anti-Drug campaign on June 26, 2019. As part of this initiative, impactful posters were prominently displayed in the campus canteen, a central hub where students gather for meals and social interactions. The campaign aimed to raise awareness about the dangers of substance abuse, emphasizing the department's commitment to the well-being and safety of the student body.

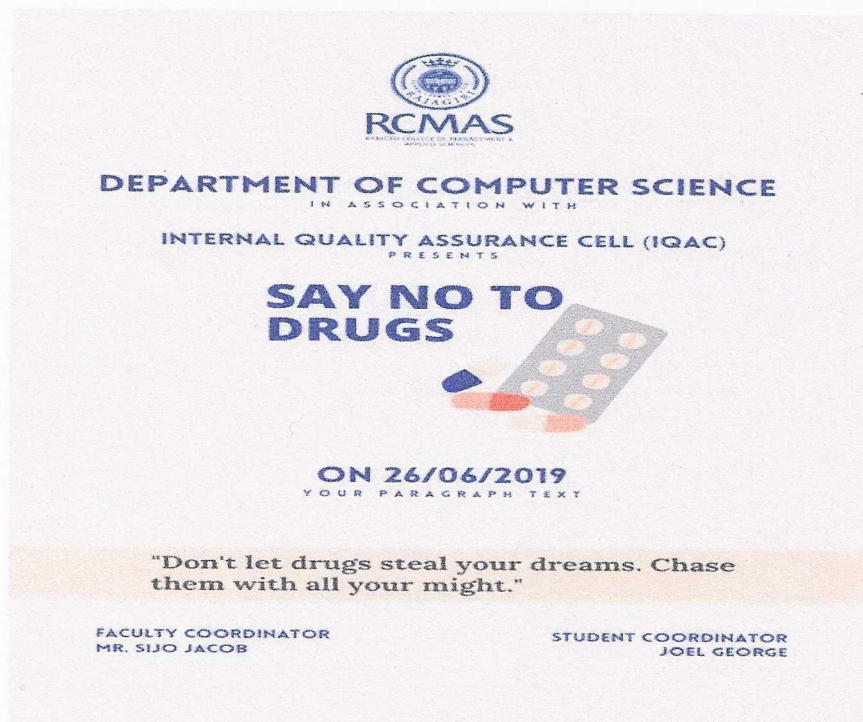

The posters featured compelling visuals and messages conveying the detrimental effects of drug abuse on physical and mental health. They also provided information on available resources for support and counselling. By strategically placing the posters in the canteen, the department ensured that the messages reached a wide audience and encouraged open conversations about the importance of maintaining a drug-free environment. This initiative not only demonstrated the department's dedication to academic excellence but also underscored its responsibility in promoting a holistic and healthy campus lifestyle.
