Report on Green Community Initiative: Distribution of Plant Saplings and Grow Bags

Programme	Green Community Initiative: Distribution of Plant Saplings and Grow Bags to Neighbourhood of Rajagiri College.
Date	28th November 2019
Beneficiaries	Neighbourhood
Outcome	The initiative contributed to the local ecosystem and encouraged a culture of sustainability and community engagement.
Organized by	Department of Commerce, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, Rajagiri Valley P. O, Cochin-39
Faculty in charge	Ms. Sunitha Varghese
Student in charge	Mr. Paul Sebastian

The Department of Commerce demonstrated its commitment to environmental sustainability on November 28, 2019. Under the guidance of Ms. Sunitha Varghese, the faculty in charge, the department spearheaded a project to collect plant saplings and distribute them to nearby houses. This eco-friendly initiative aimed not only to contribute to the greening of the local community but also to raise awareness about the importance of afforestation for a healthier environment.

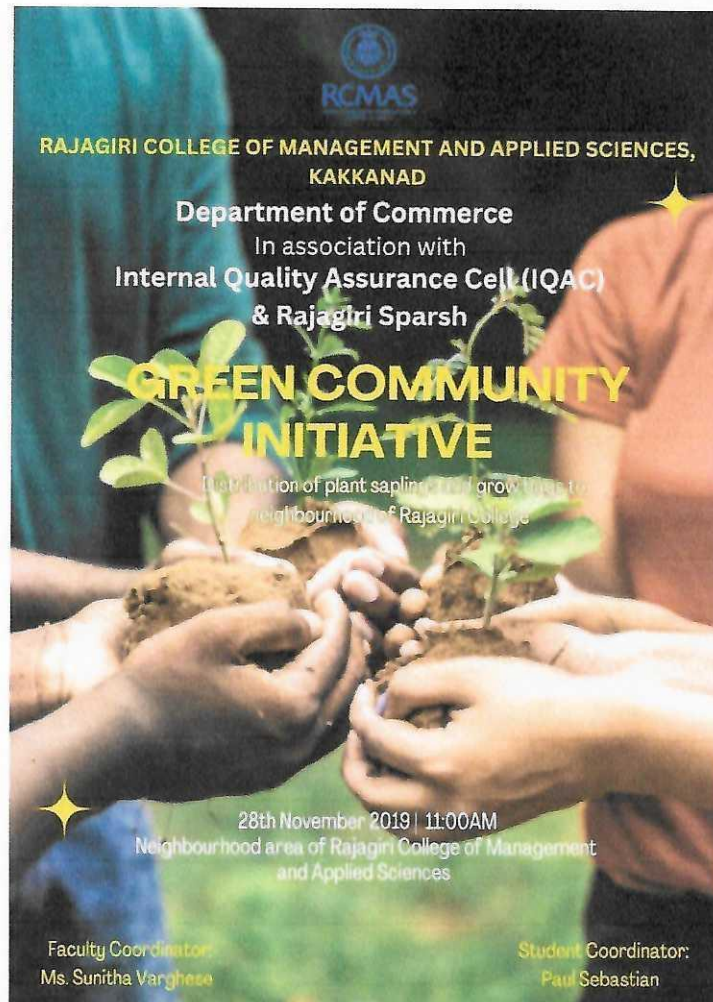

Students and faculty actively participated in collecting a variety of plant saplings, considering factors such as local climate and soil conditions to ensure the successful growth of the distributed plants. The distribution process was carried out with an emphasis on educating residents about the positive impact of planting trees on air quality, biodiversity, and overall well-being. Ms. Sunitha Varghese's leadership and the collective effort of the Department of Commerce facilitated a meaningful engagement with the community, promoting a sense of environmental responsibility and fostering a connection between the academic institution and its surrounding neighborhoods.

Paul Sebastian

This CSR initiative reflects the department's commitment to social and environmental stewardship, extending its influence beyond the academic curriculum. By distributing plant saplings, the Department of Commerce not only contributed to the local ecosystem but also encouraged a culture of sustainability and community engagement among its students and faculty. Ms. Sunitha Varghese's proactive approach in steering this initiative showcases the potential for academic institutions to play a pivotal role in promoting environmental consciousness and positive community impact.

Report on Tech Empowerment- Computer Education for St. Ignatius LPS Students

Programme	TECH EMPOWERMENT- Computer Education for St. Ignatius LPS Students
Date	7 July 2019
Beneficiaries	Students of St. Ignatius Loyola LP School, Ponekkara and Little Flower UP School, Kaloor.
Outcome	The initiative resulted in the creation of a more inclusive and digitally literate generation, aligning with the broader goals of social responsibility.
Organized by	Department of Commerce
Faculty in charge	Ms. Anupa Stanley
Student in charge	Ms. Athira Jeevan

On 7th July 2019, the Department of Commerce initiated 'Tech Empowerment,' a Campus Social Responsibility program to impart fundamental computer skills to school children. The beneficiaries of this initiative were the students of St. Ignatius Loyola LP School in Ponekkara and Little Flower UP School in Kaloor. Under the guidance of Ms. Anupa Stanley, the program's faculty in charge, the curriculum was thoughtfully crafted to address the specific needs of the participants, providing them with practical knowledge of computer usage, essential software applications, and internet safety protocols.

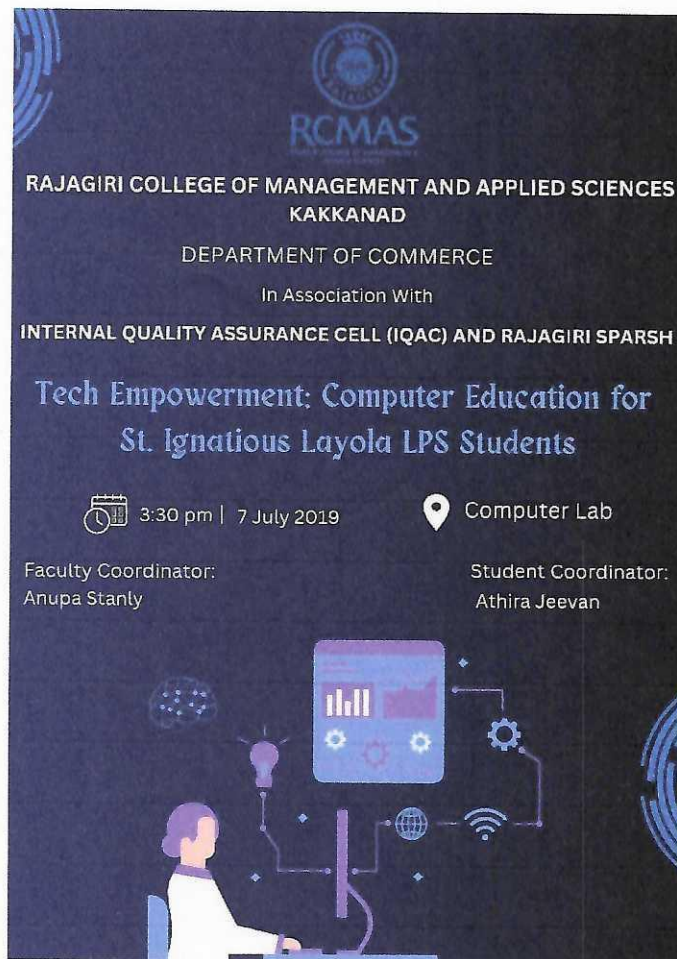

Ms. Anupa Stanley played a crucial role in orchestrating the training sessions, ensuring that the content was accessible and engaging for the students. The program not only focused on imparting technical skills but also aimed to boost the confidence of the participants in navigating the digital landscape. By choosing schools strategically, the 'Tech Empowerment' initiative sought to bridge the digital divide, catering to students who may have lacked exposure to computer education due to socio-economic constraints.

Outcome	The initiative values community engagement and served as a testament to the potential positive influence that educational institutions can have on society
Organized by	Department of Commerce
Faculty in charge	Ms. Anupa Stanley
Student in charge	Ms. Neha Bijoy

The Department of Commerce at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences embarked on a noteworthy CSR initiative by launching the 'LIBRO CAZAR' program. This innovative undertaking aimed to address the educational disparities faced by underprivileged students by collecting used study materials and redistributing them to those in need. The initiative, executed on January 30, 2020, exemplified the department's commitment to fostering social impact and promoting inclusivity through accessible education resources.

The 'LIBRO CAZAR' program garnered significant participation from students and faculty alike, showcasing a collective dedication to making a positive difference in the lives of less fortunate students. The initiative not only emphasized sustainability by repurposing study materials but also underscored the transformative power of education in breaking down barriers and creating opportunities for marginalized individuals.

On the designated day, the department successfully organized the collection and distribution process, ensuring that the used study materials reached the intended beneficiaries. This impactful CSR initiative not only aligned with the college's values of

Report on Literacy Promotion: Library Book Donation to Devi Vilasam School

Programme	Literacy Promotion: Library Book Donation to Devi Vilasam School
Date	5 January 2020
Beneficiaries	Devi Vilasam School
Outcome	Expanded the school's library resources, promoting reading and improving literacy among students.
Organized by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Ms. Anila Varghese
Student in charge	Mr. Joseph Sano

Donation of Library books was a commendable initiative organized by the Department of Management on 5 November 2020. As a other program held at Devi Vilasam School, Nayarambalam it aimed to enrich student's learning experiences. It enables students to improve their literacy skills and help them to explore different cultures, perspectives and ideas, broadening their worldview. It can also contribute towards the overall quality of the school environment and foster a sense of pride among students and teachers. The primary objective of the Library Book Donation Program was to enhance the library resources of Devi Vilasam School, providing students with access to a diverse range of books.

Reading is fundamental to educational development, and a well-stocked library can significantly contribute to improving literacy rates and fostering a culture of reading among students. By donating a variety of books, the program aimed to cater to different interests and reading levels, encouraging students to explore new worlds, ideas, and knowledge through literature. The Library Book Donation Program had a profound positive impact on the students and the overall school community at Devi Vilasam School. The immediate expansion of the library's resources was evident, with the new books enhancing the variety and quality of reading materials available to the students. The students expressed their excitement and appreciation for the new additions, noting that it made the library more attractive and inviting.

This initiative stands out as a beacon of hope and support for children of the school. The commitment of the students and faculty involved underscores the importance of social responsibility and the potential to foster positive change through collective action.

Report on Green Campus Project: Tree Sapling Planting at Devi Vilasam School

Programme	Green Campus Project: Tree Sapling Planting at Devi Vilasam School
Date	5 June 2019
Beneficiaries	Devi Vilasam School
Outcome	Contributed to environmental conservation by planting trees, enhancing the green cover and promoting ecological awareness.
Organized by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Ms. Anila Varghese
Student in charge	Ms. Drishya C S

On June 5th, 2019, the Department of Management undertook a commendable initiative by organizing a tree-planting program at Devi Vilasam School in Nayarambalam. This impactful project transcended the act of planting saplings and served a broader purpose.

By actively participating in the planting process, students gained valuable firsthand experience with the significance of trees in enriching their educational environment. This program effectively instilled a sense of environmental responsibility in the young minds, fostering an understanding of how tree planting contributes to the long-term greening of their communities. As these saplings mature, they will leave a lasting legacy for future generations, providing a more sustainable and verdant schoolyard.

The Department of Management's commitment to this initiative extends beyond the immediate benefits of a greener school. Their collaboration with Devi Vilasam School stands out as a model for social responsibility. By empowering students to become active participants in environmental change, they demonstrated the importance of collective action. This program serves as a beacon of hope, highlighting the potential for positive change when individuals and organizations work together towards a common goal.

Outcome	The initiative was meant to foster the infrastructural development and academic betterment that equipped the Students with valuable insights for their future endeavors
Organized by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Ms. Anila Varghese
Student in charge	Mr. Linu Antio T

The Department of Management at Devi Vilasom School undertook a meaningful CSR initiative by adopting the school for a transformative three years and conducted various recreational activities and seminars. Throughout this period, the department engaged in a variety of impactful activities aimed at enhancing the overall educational experience for the students and contributing to the community. The initiative focused on the holistic development of the students, incorporating programs meant for infrastructural development and academic excellence

As part of the CSR initiative, the Department of Management organized a series of recreational activities that not only brought joy to the students but also fostered a sense of camaraderie and teamwork. Events such as sports tournaments, cultural festivals, and art competitions provided a platform for the students to showcase their talents and develop essential life skills. The interactive nature of these activities facilitated a positive and inclusive environment within the school, creating lasting memories for both students and faculty involved.

Complementing the recreational aspect, the Department of Management conducted a series of seminars, featuring industry experts and academic professionals, aimed to broaden the students' perspectives and equip them with valuable insights for their future endeavors. Topics covered included career counseling, time management, and skill development, aligning with the department's vision to empower students with the knowledge and tools necessary for success beyond the academic realm. The CSR initiative not only strengthened the bond between the Department of Management and Devi Vilasam School but also left a lasting positive impact on the educational landscape of the institution.

Report on Building a Better Learning Environment: Tile Donation for Devi Vilasam School

Programme	Building a Better Learning Environment: Tile Donation for Devi Vilasam School
Date	12 December 2019
Beneficiaries	Devi Vilasam School
Outcome	Enhanced the school's infrastructure, creating a more conducive and aesthetically pleasing learning environment.
Organized by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Ms. Geethu Giby
Student in charge	Mr. Joseph Sano

On the 12th of December 2019, a significant initiative unfolded at Devi Vilasam School, Nayarambalam, Kochi, as the Department of Management at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organized a charitable event. This event aimed to enhance the infrastructure of the school through the donation and installation of tiles, transforming the learning environment into a more conducive and aesthetically pleasing space.

The initiative was spearheaded by Ms. Megha Mohan, Assistant Professor in the Department of Management at Rajagiri College, who played a pivotal role in coordinating the effort. Under her guidance, students, led by Mr. Joseph Sano, a BBA student from the same department, actively participated in the planning and execution of the project. Their involvement not only showcased their commitment to community service but also provided them with invaluable hands-on experience in project management and social responsibility.

Devi Vilasam School, located in Nayarambalam, serves as a vital educational institution in the region, catering to the educational needs of a diverse student body. The donation of tiles significantly contributed to improving the school's physical infrastructure, addressing the practical needs of the students and teachers alike. By refurbishing the floors with new tiles, the project not only enhanced the school's functionality but also uplifted its overall appearance, creating a more pleasant atmosphere for learning and teaching.

The collaboration between Rajagiri College and Devi Vilasam School exemplifies the spirit of community engagement and corporate social responsibility. Such initiatives not only fulfill an immediate need but also foster long-term relationships between educational institutions and the communities they serve. The event underscored the importance of collective efforts in improving educational environments, demonstrating that small acts of kindness and generosity can make a substantial difference in the lives of students and educators.

In conclusion, the tile donation project at Devi Vilasam School stands as a testament to the positive impact that collaborative initiatives can have on educational institutions. It not only improved infrastructure but also enriched the learning experience for the students. Such endeavors are crucial in nurturing a supportive educational ecosystem that prioritizes both academic excellence and holistic development. As Rajagiri College continues its journey in fostering community partnerships, initiatives like these serve as inspiring examples of how universities can contribute meaningfully to society beyond academic pursuits.

The Donation of Laptops was a commendable initiative organized by Management on 25 January 2020. As a others program held at Devi Vilasam School, laptops were donated to Devi vilasam school, Nayarambalam as part of CSR initiative on January 25th. The program aimed at providing access to technology for learning and teaching purposes. A total of 25 students participated in the initiative. The primary objective of the Laptop Donation Program was to provide students at Devi Vilasam School with access to modern technology. In today's digital age, proficiency with technology is essential for academic success and future career opportunities.

By donating laptops, the initiative aimed to enhance the educational experience of students, allowing them to utilize digital resources, engage in interactive learning, and develop essential digital skills. The highlight of the event was the official handover of laptops to the school. The event also included a demonstration of the laptops' features and potential uses in the classroom. The Laptop Donation Program had a profound positive impact on the students and the overall educational environment at Devi Vilasam School. The immediate benefits were evident as students and teachers began to explore the new learning opportunities afforded by the technology. Lessons became

Programme	Technology for Education: Provision of a Projector to Enhance Learning at Devi Vilasam School
Date	15 October 2019
Beneficiaries	Devi Vilasam School
Outcome	Enhanced educational experiences through technology, making learning more interactive and engaging for students.
Organized by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Ms. Megha Mohan
Student in charge	Ms. Janvi Jose

On the 15th of October 2019, an innovative step towards enhancing educational methodologies unfolded at Devi Vilasam School, Nayarambalam, Kochi. The Department of Management at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organized a program aimed at integrating technology into the classroom environment. The highlight of this initiative was the provision of a projector, which was intended to revolutionize teaching methods and enrich the learning experiences of the students. Ms. Megha Mohan, Assistant Professor in the Department of Management at Rajagiri College, played a crucial role as the faculty in charge of the project. Under her guidance, Ms. Janvi Jose, a BBA student from the same department, took charge as the student coordinator, demonstrating proactive leadership in overseeing the implementation and utilization of the projector.

Devi Vilasam School, located along SH63 in Nayarambalam, has been a cornerstone of education in the community, catering to a diverse group of students. The introduction of the projector marked a significant enhancement in the school's educational infrastructure. By enabling multimedia presentations and interactive learning sessions, the projector not only facilitated better comprehension of academic concepts but also made learning more engaging and enjoyable for the students.

Report on Campus Aesthetics: Exterior Wall Painting at Devi Vilasam School

Programme	Campus Aesthetics: Exterior Wall Painting at Devi Vilasam School
Date	3 August 2019
Beneficiaries	Devi Vilasam School
Outcome	Beautified the school campus, creating a more welcoming and inspiring environment for students and staff.
Organized by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Ms. Geethu Giby
Student in charge	Ms. Anna Thomas

On the 3rd of August 2019, Devi Vilasam School in Nayarambalam, Kochi, underwent a remarkable transformation as the Department of Management at Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organized an initiative aimed at enhancing the school's visual appeal. The focus of this program was the painting of the school's exterior walls, an effort intended to beautify the campus and create a more inviting atmosphere for students and staff alike.

Ms. Geethu Giby, Assistant Professor in the Department of Management at Rajagiri College, assumed the role of faculty in charge for this project. Under her guidance, Ms. Anna Thomas, a dedicated BBA student from the same department, took charge as the student coordinator, overseeing the planning and execution of the wall painting initiative.

Devi Vilasam School, situated along SH63 in Nayarambalam, serves as a pivotal educational institution in the local community. The painting of its exterior walls not only added a splash of vibrant colors but also revitalized the school's appearance. This transformation aimed to foster a positive environment conducive to learning and growth, thereby boosting the morale of students and motivating them towards academic excellence. The collaboration between Rajagiri College and Devi Vilasam School exemplifies the commitment of educational institutions to contribute meaningfully to their communities. Beyond academic pursuits, initiatives like the exterior wall painting project underscore the importance of nurturing a visually appealing and inspiring learning environment.

In conclusion, the initiative to paint the exterior walls of Devi Vilasam School stands as a testament to the power of aesthetics in educational settings. It not only enhanced the school's physical appearance but also uplifted the spirits of all those within its walls. Such efforts highlight the transformative impact of simple yet thoughtful interventions in creating a conducive atmosphere for holistic education and development.

Report on Eco-Conscious Survey: Assessing Plastic Use in Local Neighborhoods

Programme	Eco-Conscious Survey: Assessing Plastic Use in Local Neighborhoods
Date	14 June 2019
Beneficiaries	Local Neighborhoods
Outcome	Raised awareness about plastic use, encouraging eco-friendly practices and reducing plastic waste in the community.
Organized by	Department of Management
Faculty in charge	Ms. Megha Mohan
Student in charge	Ms. Anna Thomas

On the 14th of June 2019, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences embarked on an eco-conscious initiative aimed at assessing and addressing plastic use in the local neighborhoods surrounding the campus. Organized by the Department of Management in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), the program sought to raise awareness about plastic consumption and promote eco-friendly practices to reduce plastic waste in the community.

Ms. Megha Mohan, Assistant Professor in the Department of Management, spearheaded the initiative as the faculty in charge. Ms. Anna Thomas, a proactive BBA student from the same department, played a pivotal role as the student coordinator, overseeing the survey's planning and execution.

The venue for this initiative spanned the neighborhood area surrounding Rajagiri College, where participants conducted surveys and collected data to assess the community's plastic usage habits. The outcomes of this survey were aimed at informing local residents about sustainable alternatives and encouraging behavioral changes that contribute to environmental conservation.

The collaboration between Rajagiri College and the local community underscored the institution's commitment to environmental stewardship and community engagement. By initiating dialogue and action on plastic waste reduction, the program aimed to foster a more sustainable and eco-conscious neighborhood.

In conclusion, the eco-conscious survey conducted by Rajagiri College exemplifies the proactive approach towards addressing environmental challenges at a local level. By raising awareness and advocating for eco-friendly practices, the initiative aimed to inspire positive change and promote a greener, cleaner community for all stakeholders involved.

The Jute bag distribution is conducted within the neighborhood community to promote sustainable living practices. Jute bags are reusable and eco-friendly alternatives to plastic bags, which contribute significantly to plastic pollution. The main goal of the campaign was to raise awareness about the environmental impact of plastic bags as well as to encourage residents to adopt reusable bags for shopping and errands.

The jute bag distribution campaign successfully promoted sustainable living practices within the neighborhood. By providing residents with a reusable alternative and raising awareness about the environmental impact of plastic bags, the campaign encouraged residents to make conscious choices that benefit the environment.

Student in charge	Ms. Henza M

On August 2, 2019, the Department of Management organized a commendable school cleaning program at Devi Vilasam School in Nayarambalam. This initiative focused on maintaining a clean and hygienic environment within the school premises.

Beyond the immediate benefits of a clean school, this program contributed to the overall aesthetic appeal of the institution. A well-maintained environment creates a positive and welcoming atmosphere for students, parents, and visitors alike. This initiative emphasized the importance of cleanliness in fostering a conducive learning environment.

The Department of Management's cleaning initiative transcended the act of physical cleaning. It fostered a strong sense of community and responsibility among students and faculty. Their active participation in the program underscored the importance of social responsibility and the potential for positive change through collective action. This initiative served as a valuable learning experience, teaching students the importance of maintaining a clean and healthy environment.

On October 13, 2019, the Social Awareness Club of Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences under the leadership of Ms. Annu James undertook a significant CSR initiative by visiting the Kerala Rehabilitation Centre.

The primary focus of our initiative was to contribute to the welfare of the residents at the rehabilitation center. In line with this goal, the club organized the distribution of essential items, including groceries and stationery supplies. This distribution aimed to alleviate some of the daily challenges faced by the individuals residing in the center.

Beyond material support, the Social Awareness Club also conducted various educational classes for the residents. These classes encompassed a diverse range of subjects, tailored to meet the varying needs and interests of the individuals at the rehabilitation center. The educational sessions were designed to empower and engage the residents, fostering a sense of learning and skill development. The inmates of Kripa also taught our students candle making, umbrella making and bookbinding. The initiative proved to be a collaborative effort, bringing together the members of the Social Awareness Club to contribute positively to the community. By combining tangible assistance through the distribution of necessities with educational empowerment, the

On 3rd September, 2019, the Social Awareness Club of Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences under the leadership of Ms. Annu James undertook a significant Campus Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative by visiting the flood-torn region of Kainakari.

The primary objective of this initiative was to extend support to the communities affected by the recent floods. The club organized a comprehensive aid distribution program, contributing groceries and stationary items to address the immediate needs of the residents in Kainakari. The social club also provided essential educational items to students, supporting their academic success and addressing resource gaps. Fostered equal educational opportunities

The initiative aimed to alleviate the hardships faced by the community, recognizing the importance of providing both sustenance and resources for educational pursuits. The club's efforts were geared towards aiding in the recovery process and facilitating a sense of normalcy in the lives of those impacted by the natural disaster.

The visit to Kainnagiri showcased the commitment of the Social Awareness Club to corporate social responsibility and community welfare. By directly engaging with the affected region and offering practical assistance, the club demonstrated a proactive approach to addressing the immediate needs of the community.

In conclusion, the CSR initiative conducted by the Social Awareness Club on September 30, 2019, in the flood-torn region of Kainnagiri was a testament to the college's dedication to social responsibility. The initiative not only provided tangible support in the form of groceries and stationary but also symbolized the collective effort of the club to make a positive impact on the lives of those grappling with the aftermath of a natural disaster.

On June 20, 2019, an educational enrichment program was organized by Rajagiri Sparsh in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Janey Special School. The primary objective of the program was to support the educational and physical needs of the special school students, thereby enhancing their overall learning and development. The initiative aimed to promote inclusive education and well-being, ensuring that students with special needs receive appropriate resources and attention. The event was coordinated by faculty members Ms. Annu James and Dr. Chandralal VS, with Ms. Aleena Thomas serving as the student coordinator.

The proceedings of the program included various activities and contributions tailored to the needs of the students at Janey Special School. Physiotherapy items were contributed to address the physical development requirements of the students, helping to improve their mobility and overall physical health. Additionally, study materials were distributed to support their educational pursuits. The collaborative effort between Rajagiri Sparsh and IQAC ensured that the students received comprehensive care and educational support, with activities designed to foster an inclusive and supportive learning environment.

The program concluded with positive outcomes, significantly benefiting the students at Janey Special School. The physiotherapy items supplied contributed to the physical well-being of the students, while the study materials enhanced their learning experience. The initiative successfully promoted inclusive education and well-being, aligning with the broader objectives of Rajagiri Sparsh and IQAC. Feedback from the faculty, students, and parents was overwhelmingly positive, highlighting the program's impact on the students' development and well-being. The coordinators expressed their satisfaction with the successful execution of the program and emphasized the importance of continuing such initiatives in the future.

On October 10, 2019, Rajagiri Sparsh, in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organized an impactful program at the Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences. The primary objective of this initiative was to promote children's rights and support their education by distributing study materials to the neighbourhood. The program was coordinated by Ms. Annu James and Ms. Megha Mohan, who played a pivotal role in orchestrating the event to enhance academic opportunities and success for the children involved. The event aimed to encourage community involvement in education, fostering a supportive environment for young learners.

The proceedings of the program were structured to maximize engagement and benefit for the children and the community. Study materials, including textbooks, notebooks, and other educational resources were distributed to the children in the neighbourhood. Faculty members and volunteers from Rajagiri College participated actively in the distribution process, ensuring that each child received the necessary materials to aid their education. The event also included informative sessions on children's rights, emphasizing the importance of education and how it can empower them to secure a better future.

Legal

Interactive activities and games were organized to make the learning experience enjoyable for the children.

The outcome of the program was overwhelmingly positive. The distribution of study materials significantly enhanced the academic opportunities and success of the children, providing them with the necessary resources to excel in their studies. The initiative also fostered greater community involvement in education, as local residents participated in and supported the event. Feedback from the community and participants highlighted the importance of such initiatives in promoting children's rights and education. Overall, the program succeeded in achieving its objectives, leaving a lasting impact on the children and the community.

On 10 October 2019, the Department of English organized "Elevate: Soft skill Enhancement Session" at St. Mary's Higher Secondary School (HSS), Thalacode. This program was primarily aimed at equipping students with essential skills that would enhance their personal and professional growth, thereby preparing them for future challenges and opportunities. The initiative involved first-year English students actively participating in the preparation and distribution of food packets for those less fortunate. The goals are to raise students' confidence and self-esteem, develop their critical thinking and problem-solving skills, strengthen their teamwork and collaboration abilities, and better prepare them for future professional settings

The session was divided into interactive segments, each focusing on a different aspect of soft skills. Ice-breaking activities were conducted to create a comfortable environment and get acquainted with each other. Role-plays, group discussions, and team-building exercises were integrated into the session to improve verbal and non-verbal communication, highlight the importance of working as a team, identify and nurture leadership qualities.

A positive academic trajectory is set for the remainder of the student's academic career when they participate in such an endeavor during their first year. Serving others fosters a sense of social duty that benefits them well after they graduate from college. The first-year English students set a strong example for their peers by actively participating in the CSR activity, encouraging them to actively support social justice throughout their lives and work toward a more equal society.
