| Organized by | Department of Management |
| Faculty in charge | Ms. Anila Varghese, Ms. Geethu Giby |
| Student in charge | Ms. Hanna Usman P |

In a heartwarming display of social responsibility, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, in collaboration with the Department of Management, conducted a meaningful Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative. The event took the form of 'Onasadya,' a traditional Kerala feast, arranged at the Capernaum Charitable Trust on August 30, 2020. This initiative reflected the institution's commitment in giving back the community and fostering a spirit of compassion and inclusivity among its students.

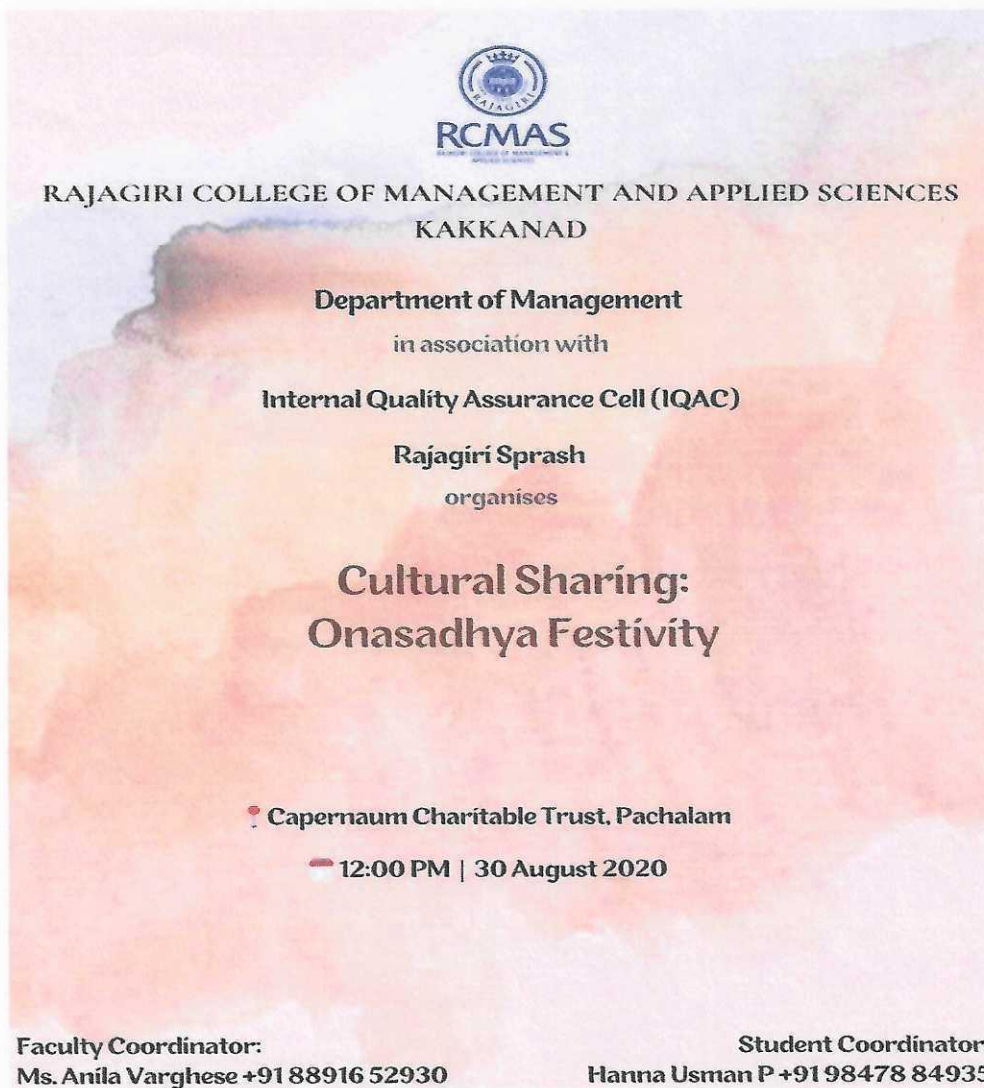

Students, faculty, and volunteers from Rajagiri College came together to organize and serve this elaborate feast to the residents of the trust. The event aimed not only to provide a delicious meal but also to create a joyous and communal atmosphere, emphasizing the importance of sharing and caring in the true spirit of the festival. It exemplified how educational institutions can play a pivotal role in instilling a sense of social responsibility and empathy in the next generation.

Beyond the confines of academic pursuits, this event underscored the significance of contributing to the welfare of society. Through initiatives like 'Onasadya,' Rajagiri College demonstrated that education goes beyond textbooks, instilling values that inspire students to make meaningful contributions to the world around them.

Report on Cool Comfort: Water Dispenser and Ceiling Fan Donation to Capernaum Trust

|--------------------------|--|
| Programme | Cool Comfort: Water Dispenser and Ceiling Fan Donation to Capernaum Trust |
| Date | 8 April 2021 |
| Beneficiaries | Inmates of Capernaum Trust |
| Outcome | Improved living condition at the Trust by providing cool comfort, enhancing the residents overall well-being |
| Organized by | Department of Management |
| Faculty in charge | Ms. Megha Mohan |
| Student in charge | Ms. Diya B |

In a commendable Campus Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, in collaboration with the Department of Management, extended a helping hand to the Capernaum Charitable Trust. On April 8, 2021, representatives from the college visited the trust to contribute essential amenities that aimed to enhance the living conditions of those under its care. The CSR activity not only showcased the institution's commitment to social welfare but also exemplified the power of collective efforts in making a positive impact on the community.

During the visit to Capernaum Charitable Trust, Rajagiri College donated water dispensers and ceiling fans, recognizing the importance of basic comforts for the well-being of the residents. This thoughtful contribution was not merely a material offering but a tangible expression of empathy and support for the trust's mission. The event emphasized the role that educational institutions can play in bridging gaps and fostering a sense of responsibility towards the less privileged, reinforcing the values of compassion and community service among the students.

The impact of the CSR activity resonated beyond the physical donations, creating a lasting connection between Rajagiri College and Capernaum Charitable Trust. This collaborative effort underscored the significance of reaching out to the community and addressing its needs. Through initiatives like these, Rajagiri College demonstrated that education goes hand in hand with a sense of social duty, empowering students to contribute meaningfully to society and imbuing them with a spirit of altruism that extends far beyond the confines of the classroom.

Report on Donation of Rs.10,645/- to Karunalayam

|--------------------------|--|
| Programme | Donation of Rs. 10,645/- to Karunalayam through 'Rajagiri Sparsh |
| Date | 10 March 2021 |
| Beneficiaries | Inmates of Karunalayam |
| Outcome | The act reinforced the importance of collective efforts in building a more compassionate and equitable society between the students. |
| Organized by | Department of Management |
| Faculty in charge | Ms. Anila Varghese |
| Student in charge | Mr. Nibin Moosa |

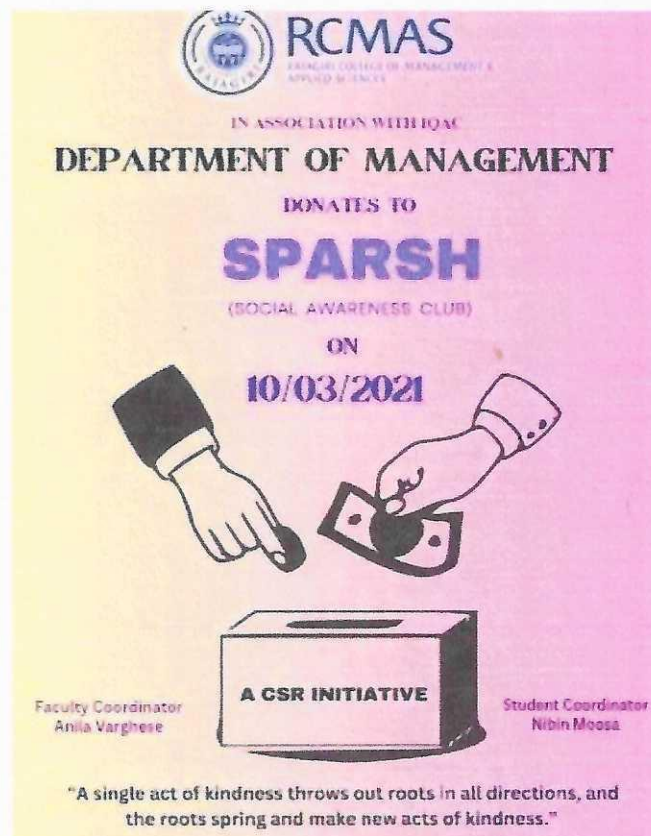

In a demonstration of philanthropy and social responsibility, Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences, in collaboration with the Department of Management, executed a meaningful Campus Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative. The department of management contributed a sum of Rs. 10,645/- to Sparsh, an organization dedicated to supporting and uplifting those in need on 10/03/21. This financial donation is a testament to the institution's commitment to making a positive impact on the community and reflects the ethos of compassion and empathy that the college seeks to instill in its students.

The donation to Karunalayam underscores the vital role educational institutions can play in supporting charitable causes and fostering a sense of responsibility towards the less fortunate. The funds provided will undoubtedly contribute to the well-being and initiatives undertaken by Karunalayam, reinforcing the importance of collective efforts in building a more compassionate and equitable society. This CSR initiative aligns with the values upheld by Rajagiri College, emphasizing the broader impact that educational institutions can have beyond academic pursuits.

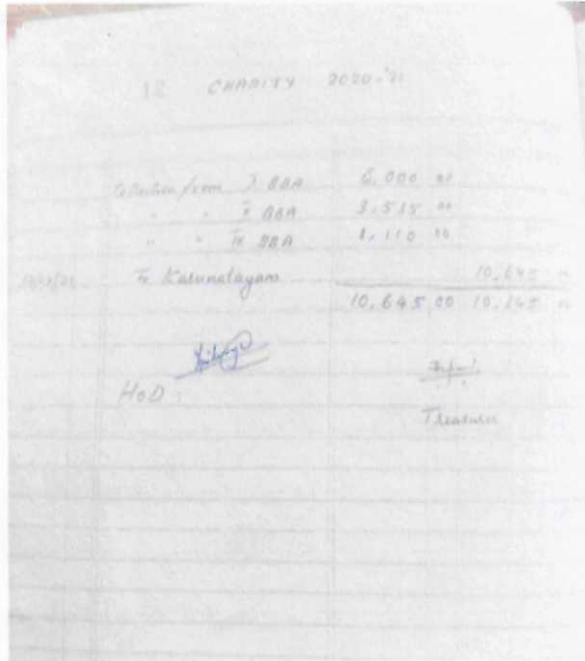

The act of contributing Rs. 10,645/- to Karunalayam represents more than a monetary donation; it symbolizes the college's dedication to creating a positive ripple effect in the lives of those who may be facing challenges. This initiative not only exemplifies the college's commitment to social welfare but also serves as an inspiration for students to engage actively in philanthropy and community service, recognizing the profound impact even a modest financial contribution can have on organizations striving to make a difference in the lives of the marginalized and underserved.

Report on Pandemic Support: Financial Aid to COVID-Affected Karunalayam

|--------------------------|---|
| Programme | Pandemic Support: Financial Aid to COVID-Affected Karunalayam, Ernakulam |
| Date | 10 March 2021 |
| Beneficiaries | 100 inmates |
| Outcome | The initiative highlighted individual talents and also reinforced the collaborative and innovative spirit |
| Organized by | Rajagiri Sparsh |
| Faculty in charge | Ms. Annu James |
| Student in charge | Ms. Keerthana A |

The Social Awareness Club of Rajagiri College of Management and Applied Sciences under leadership of Ms. Annu James orchestrated a profound Campus Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative on March 10th, 2021, reflecting the institution's commitment to societal welfare. In this impactful endeavor, 100 members, comprising students and faculty, undertook a visit to Karunalayam, a center dedicated to aiding the underprivileged and vulnerable segments of society. This visit served as a platform to understand the challenges faced by the residents, fostering empathy and a deeper understanding of societal issues.

During this impactful visit, Rajagiri's team didn't just engage in dialogue and interaction, they also presented a significant financial contribution of Rs 1,00,000. This contribution aimed to bolster Karunalayam's post-COVID relief endeavors, aiding in the provision of essential resources, medical support, and rehabilitation efforts for those adversely affected by the pandemic. The donation exemplified more than monetary assistance; it was a heartfelt gesture symbolizing unity and support
